Santiago Wanderers:

HISTORIA DEL CLUB DE DEPORTES

Corría el año 1892, cuando un grupo de porteños se reunió en la subida Carampangue de Valparaíso para crear el Club de Deportes Santiago Wanderers; el nombre de la capital de Chile se debe a que este conglomerado de pioneros del deporte quiso diferenciar su incipiente club del Valparaíso Wanderers, creado tiempo antes por un grupo de ingleses alocados en nuestro país.

Constituyeron su flamante primera directiva: don Guillermo Hidalgo como presidente, don Vicente Lobos en calidad de vicepresidente y el capitán don Francisco Avaria.

La primera aparición en público fue un encuentro amistoso jugado frente al club Nacional del cerro Artillería, en una cancha situada entre el muelle Prat y la bodega de los ferrocarriles, con un resultado final que hasta el día de hoy es una incógnita.

En el año 1900 debuta el Club Deportivo Santiago Wanderers en competencias de carácter oficial, coronándose inmediatamente campeón del torneo de "National Futbol Asociation" imponiéndose a los equipos de Brasil-Chile, Liceo-Wanderers, La Cruz, Cordillera, Liceo-Rangers, Red Start y London.

Se incorpora al profesionalismo en 1937, luego de marginarse de la competencia local e incorporarse a la "Asociación Nacional de Santiago", que había iniciado sus campeonatos en 1933.

El color verde con el que hoy identificamos tan nítidamente al Club de Deportes Santiago Wanderers, curiosamente no fue elegido por sus fundadores, sino que se debe a un capricho del destino. Cuenta la historia que en el año 1907 fue abandonado en el Hospital San Juan de Dios de Valparaíso un gringo largo y flaco llamado James Mac-Lean a causa de un cólico intestinal, luego de recuperarse se incorporó a trabajar al Club Santiago Wanderers, con el objetivo de reunir dinero y retornar a su país.

Al emprender el regreso, Mac-Clean tenía una deuda en la residencia donde habitaba ascendente a sesenta y cinco pesos, los cuales cancelaría enviando desde Inglaterra un juego de camisetas de color azul y café listadas, enseña que sería, quizás hoy la oficial de Santiago Wanderers, pero al llegar estas camisetas, grande fue la sorpresa al ver que eran de color verde.

La historia del fútbol chileno ha tenido a Wanderers como uno de sus principales y más notables actores, tanto en sus períodos de depresión futbolística que lo han llevado a jugar en la división de ascenso, desde donde siempre ha salido fortalecido, como en su década de apogeo donde se coronó como monarca del fútbol chileno en los años 1958 y 1968, ganándose merecidamente el apodo de "Los Panzers" por su agresividad y potencia que impusieron como filosofía futbolística.

Ligados a esta señera institución y grabados en la retina de la afición encontramos nombres como los de Raúl Toro, que salta desde Valparaíso a la consagración internacional en el Sudamericano de Buenos Aires en 1936; Guillermo Díaz, quien a los 15 años ya había debutado en el primer equipo; Raúl Sánchez, aporte indudable al mayor logro del fútbol chileno en el año 1962; don Elías Figueroa, para muchos el mejor central del mundo a través de la historia. Dentro de los grandes aportes que vinieron desde el extranjero no podemos dejar de mencionar a Vicente Cantatore, hoy chileno y quien ha desplegado su experiencia a través del mundo o Alberto Ferrero que también se quedó junto a nosotros después de participar en la época de oro del decano del fútbol chileno.
