ATR VERDICT: Stanley Pincombe goes well for Molly Landau and with the rider's 7lb allowance a handy asset, this three-time hurdles winner holds solid claims. So does Regal Renaissance, who was comfortably on top when landing a mares' handicap at Chepstow, with Archie Jones' claim effectively cancelling out the 7lb penalty. However, BANTEER surely has more to offer than he managed at Doncaster and given his previous third behind subsequent Dovecote winner Lump Sum here reads particularly well, this longer trip can prompt further progress from the Paul Nicholls-trained handicap debutant.

Top Tip: BANTEER (6)

Watch out for: STANLEY PINCOMBE (5)

Long Handicap: I Love You Sivola 9 - 6

ATR VERDICT: The hat-trick seeking Begin The Luck posted a wide-margin Stratford success when last seen and is noteworthy back on a right-handed track on debut for a new yard, while previous course winner Hatos is respected going back up in trip with a first-time visor added. However, preference is for SHERBORNE, who is also a C&D winner but seems more suited to this sort of distance than his two main rivals. The state of the ground has also come up trumps for the selection and a big run is expected off just 5lb above his last winning mark.

Top Tip: SHERBORNE (5)

Watch out for: BEGIN THE LUCK (2)

ATR VERDICT: EL GRANJERO has posted a string of creditable second-placed finishes in maiden/novice company. The five-year-old's recent narrow defeat over C&D sets a fair standard and he could make it fourth-time lucky over timber. The biggest threat may emerge in the shape of Stay If U Want To, who offered plenty to work with on his hurdles bow when runner-up at Catterick last month. The Sad Shepherd also enters calculations on his stable debut for Alastair Ralph.

Top Tip: EL GRANJERO (2)

Watch out for: STAY IF U WANT TO (8)

ATR VERDICT: TEQUILA BLAZE had plenty left in the locker when scoring at Southwell last month and she is hardly overburdened, despite stepping up in class, off a 7lb higher mark. The manner of that success created the impression the 10-year-old is more than capable of holding her own back at this sort of level and another big run is expected. Just Go For It wasn't hard pressed to score over 2m3f at Taunton and is feared as a potential improver over this longer distance. Sabrina and Chloe's Court complete the shortlist.

Top Tip: TEQUILA BLAZE (4)

Watch out for: JUST GO FOR IT (8)

Long Handicap: Invincible Wish 10 - 0

ATR VERDICT: Although FAMOSO doesn't appear to be hiding much from the handicapper at present, he ticks more boxes than most. A return to the track and trip of his last victory should aid the eight-year-old's chance and a fourth career triumph over fences could be in the offing. Flash Gorcombe is a viable alternative to the selection having performed with credit over 2m3f and 2m4f in recent months. An improved bid from last year's winner Ardmayle wouldn't be a surprise either.

Top Tip: FAMOSO (2)

Watch out for: FLASH GORCOMBE (3)

ATR VERDICT: JUNIPER beat Whatsdastory (second) and stablemate Lilith (fell three out when weakening) when returning from a 133-day break to bolt up over an extended 2m5f at Taunton, and she has only been put up 4lb. Anthony Honeyball's mare is fairly unexposed for her age and looks the one to beat again. Touchy Feely had excuses when pulled up at Kempton in November and she would be foolish to dismiss on only her second chase start off the same rating.

Top Tip: JUNIPER (2)

Watch out for: TOUCHY FEELY (3)

ATR VERDICT: A 7lb penalty for Only Fools' 11-length romp at Fontwell shouldn't prevent a bold follow-up bid, but there is a sneaking suspicion that a bigger performance remains from AFTER MANY DAYS. Henry Daly's mare posted a respectable third behind a subsequent winner at Southwell earlier this month and this slight ease in distance may be enough for the five-year-old to open her account. Damask and handicap debutant Charmian's Place also warrant a second look.

Top Tip: AFTER MANY DAYS (1)
