ATR VERDICT: MALINKA sets the standard with a rating of 96 after finishing third in a handicap at Leicester five days ago and this looks an easier assignment. With the booking of Gavin Sheehan catching the eye, she could be the one to beat. St Lukes Chelsea showed more on his second start in this sphere when finishing fourth over C&D last time and he could get closer here, while Playaway Girl is another to keep an eye on.

ATR VERDICT: FINGLE BRIDGE looked a very smart prospect when running away with a Chepstow bumper on his latest outing in December 2022 and, in what looks a winnable affair for the grade, he gets the vote to make a winning start to his hurdling career on his return to action. Koukeo found only one rival too good over 2m1f at Carlisle on his hurdles bow recently and another bold bid is anticipated. Malfoy Manor is also a key player.

ATR VERDICT: High Treason was well beaten into third on his chasing debut at Newbury last month, but the drop in grade and 2lb lower mark gives him a leading chance. However, the vote goes to fellow course winner GETAWAY DRUMLEE, who wasn't beaten far when third in this grade at Huntingdon last time and goes off an unchanged rating. The step back up in trip might prove to be a good move on only his second start over fences and he looks the way to go. Brulure Noire completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: A winner at Wetherby on his chasing debut, JAGWAR followed that success with a more fluent display of jumping at Bangor to remain unbeaten over fences. He has the scope to rate even higher on that evidence and can defy a 9lb rise. Rambo T made every yard at Warwick to open his account over the larger obstacles and should have more to offer, while Jingko Blue showed good progress over hurdles last term and is one to note on his chasing bow.

ATR VERDICT: GROOM DE COTTE relished every yard of the longer distance when running out a seven-length victor over 3m2f at this venue in September. Gary Brown's eight-year-old goes off a 10lb higher rating for that success, but that may not stop him from completing a double, despite dropping back in trip. Chancellorstown was touched off by a nose when second in this grade at Plumpton last month and should mount a bold bid off 2lb higher. Of the remainder, Arctic Saint makes the most appeal.

ATR VERDICT: Not at his best on faster going here during the summer, IMPERIAL ALEX had recorded a hat-trick on testing ground before that culminating in a victory over course and distance. This looks less competitive and another bold bid is anticipated from Tom Lacey's charge. Here Comes McCoy reverts to the larger obstacles on his return to action only 3lb higher than when making all at Southwell in March, while recent Carlisle third Sound And Fury could also go well in first-time cheekpieces.

ATR VERDICT: VALIRANN GOLD caught the eye when finishing a staying-on third over 2m at Lingfield on his seasonal reappearance last month and, with this step back up in trip promising to suit, he gets the nod to score off 11lb lower. Returning C&D winner Captain Claude was running consistently well last term and he must enter calculations stepping back in trip off what looks a manageable mark. Leading Swoop is also noteworthy.

ATR VERDICT: STRICTLY TANGO found only a subsequent winner too strong over 2m1f at Carlisle on his handicap debut recently and, nudged up 3lb, he looks the one to side with in a bid to go one place better this time around. This represents an ease in grade for handicap debutant Lightningupourdays, whose form to date over hurdles reads particularly well in the context of this event, while Don Virginia is open to improvement having shaped well on his handicapping bow in October.

ATR VERDICT: Dual bumper winner HOLLYGROVE CHA CHA impressed when running out an easy winner over an extended 2m5f at Ludlow on her hurdles debut last month and, with the promise of more to come, she gets the nod to maintain her unbeaten record, despite carrying a winner's penalty. Point-to-point scorer Two Fingers West looks a fascinating contender on her debut under Rules for the in-form Stuart Edmunds team and she must enter calculations. There is lots to like about 110,000-euro purchase Katira Du Mestivel on paper and she has to be respected, particularly if the market speaks favourably.

She should prove tough to stop with a repeat of that performance, despite an 11lb hike in the ratings. Dairylane Daisy bumped into a well-handicapped type when runner-up over that same C&D on her latest outing back in April and she is respected off 4lb higher. Tuscan Rose appears best of the remainder.

Motazzen doubtless has the ability to play a hand in a race of this nature and he could emerge as the main danger to the selection off a sliding mark, while this step up in trip should help John Betjeman be seen to better effect and he completes the shortlist.

The step up to a mile for the first time seemed to make a big difference for Harry Eustace's gelding and a 5lb rise doesn't appear likely to stop him from progressing further. ATR VERDICT: TRIUMPH OF PEACE remains on the same mark as when dead-heating for third here over 7f last month and the manner of that performance suggested an extra furlong might see the daughter of No Nay Never in a better light. Enola Grey filled the runner-up spot twice in November and is likely to enter calculations along with Moonspirit, who returns from a break.

Top Tip: TRIUMPH OF PEACE (5)

ATR VERDICT: FAST FRED continues to progress nicely having landed a hat-trick of victories at Newcastle and the handicapper may not have caught up with the four-year-old yet, despite going up 5lb for that latest success. Charlie's Choice is a consistent performer who may benefit from going up in trip, while others for the shortlist include Brighton winner Night Bear and Dr Rio.

ATR VERDICT: KYLIAN had Equilateral (sixth) in behind when scoring at Newcastle last month and has a 7lb higher mark to contend with. Archie Watson's three-year-old was a Listed winner as a juvenile and could take this before moving onto better things. Bedford Flyer was far from disgraced in fifth at Lingfield in September and is a previous track and trip scorer to take seriously, while Mon Na Slieve might grab a place.

ATR VERDICT: ARC ZOOSVE has occupied the runner-up berth on each of his two handicap starts to date, including over track and trip on his penultimate start. The son of Time Test goes off the same mark as his most recent second at this venue and he looks the one to be on. Turner Girl's rating continues to drop after finishing third at Lingfield last month and the step back up in trip might aid her cause. Swinging London is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: JOSEPH outran his big odds to take the silver medal home on his debut at Newcastle last month and is likely to have plenty of improvement in him. John Butler's juvenile is related to plenty of winners and may prove tough to beat. Tremolo improved on his debut fourth to make the frame over C&D in October and it would be no surprise to see him get involved, while any market support behind newcomer Boundless Poet would be interesting.

ATR VERDICT: HIDDEN SECRET posted a better effort when fourth at Newmarket on his first start since being gelded. The son of Dubawi should prove competitive at this level and feature in the finish. War Hawk disappointed at Chelmsford last time, though is not easily dismissed having finished a respectable third on the Tapeta at Newcastle on debut, while the newcomer Damysus cost a hefty 460,000gns as a yearling and should be noted representing powerful connections.

ATR VERDICT: IZZARI opened his account when scoring with plenty left in the tank at Newcastle last week. Iain Jardine's charge remains unexposed and it could be no surprise to see him defy today's 6b penalty in this lower grade. A winner at Chelmsford in October, Wilde And Dandy placed over course and distance on his latest start and can feature once again, while Capuchinero appeals most of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: KATS BOB won here back in January off a 5lb higher mark and gave notice a return to winning ways was imminent when going close at Newcastle. He may prove the one to side with, given Crocodile Power has to compete off a career-high mark having won again at Catterick last time. The latter could still land a blow, while Bellagio Man is also fancied to go well with an apprentice's allowance helping his cause.

Top Tip: KATS BOB (12)
