ATR VERDICT: Now that the penny has dropped for HENRYSBROTHERJACK after a comfortable success at Uttoxeter in December, the six-year-old is likely to have plenty more improvement forthcoming and he can follow up off 10lb higher. A creditable second over C&D last time out, Jingle Jangle Jet is entitled to be thereabouts, along with Gms Prince, who wasn't beaten far over shorter here on his most recent outing.

ATR VERDICT: JURANCON may have a 12lb penalty to overcome for scoring on two of his last three starts, but he was a taking winner at Newbury last time out and stepping up in trip could eke out further improvement. Go West could not have done it any easier when scoring at Fakenham last time out and looks to be a key player, along with Not So Woolly, who has shaped well without winning in three starts over hurdles.

Top Tip: JURANCON (1)

ATR VERDICT: Runner-up to a subsequent Grade 1 winner at Chepstow on his Rules debut, BELLIANO has since scored with authority at Ascot and there looks to be plenty of potential in this son of Black Sam Bellamy. A 6lb penalty will make life tougher but he should have enough to see off I'm A Lumberjack, who was well on top at the finish when getting off the mark at Warwick in December. Silver Thorn may be suited by dropping back in trip and is a player for an in-form yard.

ATR VERDICT: ASA may not have impressed with her jumping when scoring over C&D last time out but she had plenty in hand and conditions look to be in her favour again as she seeks a double. A 5lb rise could prove lenient for Philip Kirby's mare, and it may be that the recent Catterick scorer Emotional Roller gives her the most to think about. Gavroche D'allier and Socialiser are capable of being in the shake-up as well.

ATR VERDICT: Not beaten far in a race that has worked out well at Exeter last time out, THE DOYEN CHIEF remains unexposed in this sphere and stepping up in trip could be ideal for this eight-year-old. He can score at the main expense of Pimlico Point, who has not been seen in action since May but went close at Uttoxeter on that occasion. Mount Gay Run is another to consider on his chasing bow, while Jupiter Allen cannot be ruled out either.

ATR VERDICT: The well-handicapped TREASURED COMPANY returned from a short break with a solid effort when third at Wetherby's Boxing Day fixture and is an attractive proposition nudged up just 1lb here. Rock On Tommy is closely matched with the selection on past form and warrants close inspection. Morandi Second and Adaay Forever, who tries a first-time visor, both have scope for progression over hurdles and also warrant serious thought.

ATR VERDICT: ANNO POWER was the game winner of maiden hurdle over 2m at Sandown in November and looks progressive enough to cope with a penalty. Having previously shown ability when winning bumpers at Cheltenham and Ascot, there is a lot to like about her chance now she has experience in this discipline. The class-dropping Tour Ovalie is another must for consideration, while Organic completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: COURT CIAN was a ready winner over this trip at Fakenham last month and is hard to oppose despite a 10lb higher mark imposed for that bloodless 16-length success. Hardy Fella and Rialannah should at least be able to make a fist of things based on their resurgent recent efforts, with the former looking the chief threat to the selection after a near miss at Wincanton 19 days ago.

ATR VERDICT: Having readily completed a hat-trick of wins over fences in a similar race at Market Rasen in November, CAMINO ROCIO is hard to oppose as he bids to extend his unbeaten status since joining his current yard. A 9lb higher mark obviously demands more of him and gives hope to the supporters of Lady Pretender and Mutley Crew, who are put forward as the two most likely threats.

ATR VERDICT: HEARD THAT justified favouritism in good style over 2m4f at Huntingdon last month and is only 7lb higher. Olly Murphy's six-year-old can cope with this step back up in distance to make it three wins from his last four starts. Peejaybee finished over seven lengths clear of the third when hitting the crossbar over C&D on his latest outing and could mount a bold bid off just 2lb higher, while Concetto is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: DIESEL LINE took a big step forward on his second handicap start when filling the runner-up spot over C&D last month, and he's only 2lb higher. Jeremy Scott's seven-year-old might only need to reproduce that level of form in order to go one better. Activist wasn't disgraced in fourth in a stronger event at Hereford on his latest outing and could get into contention, along with Our Dylan.

ATR VERDICT: La Zoubida showed ability when second on her bumper debut at Sedgefield on Boxing Day and she could have a say. However, it's hard to ignore the claims of point-to-point winner LADY KLUCK, who was successful in convincing style at the same venue earlier in December. Dan Skelton's five-year-old has a 7lb penalty to shoulder, but that is unlikely to prevent her from following up. Any market confidence behind newcomer Baby Thyme would be interesting.

ATR VERDICT: MIDNIGHT LION's winning run came to an end over 1m2f here recently but that was a much stronger race than this and he has to be of interest, despite the big step up in trip. Zivaniya's second at Kempton a couple of weeks ago suggests that he could go well in a race of this nature, while Dreams Adozen is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: TWO TO TANGO only found a subsequent winner too good in a deeper contest over track and trip in December and the handicapper might have been kind to leave his mark alone. With the booking of Harry Cobden catching the eye, he could gain his first career success. Ted's Friend has made the frame on each of his last three starts, most recently finishing second at Fakenham, and should remain competitive. Drash On Ruby completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Time Patrol and Pockley both merit the utmost respect on the back of recent victories, but the penalties they carry demand more from them. With that in mind, preference is for SPARTAN FIGHTER, who was beaten just under two lengths over C&D 12 days ago and a 2lb drop in the ratings could prove fruitful. Shatin Venture is another who merits a place on the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: TASEVER only found one too good when trying to follow up a C&D victory in January here on Saturday and the five-year-old is clearly the one to beat once again. Streak Lightning was not far behind the selection on his most recent outing and could prove to be the main danger, although Harlem Nights and Bobby Joe Leg also merit consideration.

ATR VERDICT: ONE HORSE TOWN didn't get a clear run yet managed a commendable second-placed finish over 7f on his stable debut at Chelmsford last month. The additional furlong could draw further improvement from the lightly-raced three-year-old, who sets the standard and appeals strongly with cheekpieces added. Orangesandlemons rates the most obvious threat, although Sovereign Class warrants close inspection after her debut second.

ATR VERDICT: WILLIAM DEWHIRST is in the form of his life after showing his versatility to score over 6f at this venue last time, which made it five wins from his last six starts. Ben Haslam's five-year-old is 19lb higher than the beginning of that fine sequence and can continue his rise in the ranks. Paddy's Day made every yard of the running to regain the winning thread over C&D on his most recent start and is noted along with last-time-out Southwell scorer Popular Dream.
