ATR VERDICT: Youfillupmysenses showed decent early speed before weakening to finish eighth on her debut at Thirsk 16 days ago and that sharpness should stand her in good stead. However, Tim Easterby's filly is vulnerable to a newcomer and it may be worth chancing SOCIETY OF HONOR. The son of Nando Parrado boasts plenty of speed in his pedigree and any market support would increase confidence. Fellow debutant Mr Nippy is also worth a second look.

ATR VERDICT: Having ended last year's campaign with a good second at Southwell, KITTY FURNIVAL could be worth chancing on her return to action. The daughter of Zarak looks more than capable of scoring at this level and she edges the vote over Youthful King. Luke Dace's inmate arrives on the back of a solid fourth at Newbury and he isn't taken lightly reverting to the C&D of his last triumph. Sax Appeal completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: SPIRIT OF ACKLAM is entitled to be sharper for this after running fresh at Doncaster on his reappearance. He was beaten less than a length when third here back in October behind Can't Stop Now, and the son of Cracksman has a fitness edge over that rival as he looks to turn the tables. Sea Regal won her maiden over 1m2f and is worth noting on her debut for David O'Meara's yard.

ATR VERDICT: GO GO BOOTS left a good impression when scoring over a mile here at the first time of asking. The daughter of Night Of Thunder and Oaks entrant will likely relish this extra test of stamina and is taken to defy her penalty. Magical Idea belongs to the family of Eclipse winner Mukhadram and any strong support for the Haggas newcomer could prove significant, while Knickerbocker can only improve on last year's moderate debut effort representing a yard in top form.

ATR VERDICT: Starliner has been threatening a return to winning ways, but his chance has been compromised by a wide draw. YAASER looks a safer proposition, given he returned to the fray with a fine third at Redcar and Jim Goldie's inmate can make the most of this drop in class. Our Dagger landed a double at Kempton at the start of the year and can feature if carrying over that form to the turf.

ATR VERDICT: CITY OF POETS ran well in defeat when runner-up at Thirsk on his introduction. James Tate's colt finished clear of the rest of the field and will be hard to keep out of the finish with improvement likely. L'Karama is another with solid claims, having followed a promising debut effort with an even better performance at Wolverhampton. Newcomer Al Durry is a daughter of American Pharoah and has to be of interest.

ATR VERDICT: Five days on from coming within a whisker of justifying favouritism over C&D, JUST TEN HIGH is turned out again in an attempt to make amends. That quick turnaround means he is able to compete off the same mark and he can take full advantage. Libra Tiger made a pleasing enough start to his 2025 campaign when fourth over track and trip. He might be the primary threat, although General Assembly and Southbank shouldn't be too far away.

ATR VERDICT: Calanthe was caught close home at Kempton and is expected to give another bold sight from the front. He may have to settle for a supporting role again, though, if DARVEL turns up in the same form that carried him to victory on his Bath comeback. His ordinary all-weather record can be ignored, given his limited experience on artificial surfaces. Union Island was beaten less than a length over C&D last week and returns on the same rating. Mr Fustic was a place ahead of Francesi when fourth in a separate division of the Kempton contest in which Calanthe was pipped.

ATR VERDICT: An interesting maiden featuring several with useful pedigrees who could go on from here. Pharitz Racing fields three, of which Pharitz Alanood has the most experience, and on last year's form, should appreciate a return to this track. French import Mdawi will have been well schooled when with Francois Rohaut, but now in the UK, he may just need this on his debut. Piccadilly Lady comes from a well-respected stable, but all her siblings needed a few runs and a mark to win. Former champion trainer Phil Collington has two nicely-bred juveniles, with KS MEMPHIS looking the pick on jockey bookings, and he's done well with that sire's stock at all levels.

ATR VERDICT: Not a particularly daunting standard to aim at and the vote goes to GORDON NORSE. The gelded son of Kodi Bear hit the frame over C&D on his racecourse bow in October and although he's not been seen since, natural improvement is likely to suffice. ATR VERDICT: BIG GOSSEY has 6lb to find on ratings with My Mate Alfie, but is better suited by conditions and comes here in top form. They met four times last year, with Big Gossey only coming out best when getting weight from My Mate Alfie in a premier handicap at the Curragh in July, but he is better suited to soft ground and has proven pace for this distance. My Mate Alfie is himself a smart Group 3 winner, but his best form is on a faster surface. Notably, he also competes at 5f for the first time. Two Stars receives 3lb from the aforementioned pair and while he steps out of handicap company, he loves testing ground and this trip.
