Long Handicap: Victor Haze 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: Now that the penny has dropped for TROPICAL SPEED on his third start for these connections at Stratford in March, the six-year-old may have plenty more to come as he goes back up in trip. A 7lb rise for that win could prove lenient and he is preferred to Champetre, who has been in consistent form of late. Stepping up markedly in distance, Victor Haze is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: CLAIM DU BRIZAIS opened her account in a bumper here last month but Dan Skelton's mare, who changed hands for 130,000 pounds at the sales last March, should be even better over an obstacle and she's expected to take all the beating. Red Panda holds an official rating of 96 and if running to similar level she could claim second place, while Back In The Bay looks best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: A promising second on his chase debut at Wetherby in March, BASELINE is likely to come forward for that effort and looks the one to beat off 2lb higher. Jet Of Dreams has been in excellent form of late and he may not be done improving yet. Gower Prince looked to be in control when falling at the last at Chepstow recently and cannot be overlooked.

ATR VERDICT: Market House has been in good form on the Flat and should have a big say revering to hurdles at this level. However, his past exploits in this discipline for a previous yard were quite inauspicious and he wouldn't be one for maximum faith. On the other hand, LENJOLEUR DE PALMA is a lightly-raced four-year-old with plenty of scope for progression and is a more intriguing option on just his second start in a handicap. Dartmouth Rose completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: GOGUENARD showed a lot more when reverting to timber and finishing second at Bangor in February. The nine-year-old competes off an unchanged mark and looks the one to be with. Getuptheyard filled the runner-up spot at Chepstow in March and should remain competitive, while Clinton Lane is another to keep an eye on judged on the pick of his form.

ATR VERDICT: Le Milos has already won a similar race this year and should go well from just 1lb higher. Tommie Beau also looks a key player as he takes a significant drop in class. However, this can go the way of GLYNN, who had over seven lengths in hand over Le Milos on his most recent start at Haydock and can confirm the form, despite his old rival holding a 1lb pull at the weights.

ATR VERDICT: ROGUE LEGEND competes from a nice middle draw in six, has a fast pedigree and debuts for a yard which operates at a high strike-rate. By a good sprint sire, three of the selection's half-siblings each notably made winning juvenile debuts with one, Dave Dexter, scoring three times as a juvenile including at Listed level. The speedily-bred Raphello's sister Flotus also scored on debut, later winning a Group 3 and attaining a Group 1 place, so he could be quite smart. Oh Cecelia was supported on debut at the Curragh and ran well to finish second.

ATR VERDICT: FEVER DREAM returned after wind surgery with a very cosy win over an extended 3m at Southwell last month and has a decent chance of supplementing that ready success with the step up in trip a potential source for further improvement. Fern Hill has placed form over C&D and is a strong contender to at least make the frame again. Fellow last-time out winners Ali Star Bert and Chemical Warfare are the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: SAPPHIRE PRINCESS failed to justify strong market confidence on her course debut last month but nonetheless showed nice ability and now drops down a furlong. Out of a Listed winner, she can progress. City Of Memphis, a half-sister to six winners, was an expensive 340,000-euro breeze-up purchase last May and while she makes a belated debut a year on, she could be smart. Turners Cross is noted too.

ATR VERDICT: Top-weight DANCE NIGHT ANDDAY makes her seasonal reappearance but enjoyed a good 2024 and has smart C&D form. A three-time winner last year, she attained a Listed second on fast ground here last August and is likely to have been aimed at this race. Tokenomics has a similar profile in that he also likes a sound surface and won three times last year. He competes off a career-high mark but can get involved. Mallavelly is another to bear in mind.

ATR VERDICT: DJ PETE hit the woodwork in a tougher contest than this at Chepstow last month and the handicapper might have been kind to only put him up 1lb. The son of Malinas may have more to offer on only his fourth handicap start and will prove tough to beat. Tropical Talent failed to justify favouritism but wasn't disgraced in second at Hereford last time and is likely to be thereabouts. Of the remainder, Electric Jet makes the most appeal.

Mickey Bowen's six-year-old has taken a step forward on each of his last three outings and it would be no surprise to see him score now tackling a fence. Pottlerath struck in good style at Stratford on his most recent start and holds an obvious chance off 7lb higher. Impatient looks best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: EARTH KING went in by just under a length in a stronger event at Exeter when last seen in October and makes his return to action off a 6lb higher mark. The nine-year-old should find this a little easier and can go in again. Ebony Warrior secured his second victory over the smaller obstacles at Warwick in March and is an interesting contender back in a handicap. Shantou Express is another to note.

Top Tip: EARTH KING (4)
