ATR VERDICT: Although she could only muster a fifth-placed finish in the Gordon Richards at Sandown last month, there is every chance that SEE THE FIRE could improve for that seasonal debut. Andrew Balding's filly posted several creditable efforts in defeat at the top level last year and a return to the scene of her last success could prove fruitful. Nakheel ended her 2024 campaign on an upward trajectory and, despite this trip looking on the sharp side, the Park Hill hero shouldn't be underestimated. Doha should also have better days ahead.

Top Tip: SEE THE FIRE (7)
Watch out for: NAKHEEL (5)

Long Handicap: Oldbury Lad 8 - 8, Lily's Symphony 8 - 8, Pipkin 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: A highly encouraging third on her handicap debut at Lingfield last month, JAGETME is likely to have improvement to come over further and she can strike with Billy Loughnane taking over in the saddle. Dark Sorceress had Rumba Bay (fourth) behind when runner-up at Nottingham last time and both are entitled to be thereabouts again. Off The Bench and Piranha Rama cannot be ruled out either.

Top Tip: JAGETME (3)

Watch out for: DARK SORCERESS (8)

ATR VERDICT: THE LION IN WINTER unfortunately missed his initial intended assignment in the first Classic this year, but there is no doubting the level of ability the son of Sea The Stars showed in his juvenile campaign. Aidan O'Brien's colt produced a sparkling performance to beat Wimbledon Hawkeye (second) and subsequent 2000 Guineas winner Ruling Court (third) in the Acomb here last summer. He is likely to have lots more to offer, especially with this step up in distance expected to bring about any amount of improvement. Alpine Trail is unbeaten in three starts, with his best effort coming when successful in Listed company at Newmarket just under a fortnight ago, and he is one to watch.

Top Tip: THE LION IN WINTER (9)

7 (6)		6	SPANISH TRAIN 24 b c Lope De Vega - Golden Valentine	3 9 - 1t	Billy Loughnane P & O Cole	-

ATR VERDICT: ARABIAN FORCE showed major improvement from first to second start when a determined winner at Wetherby and going up in trip should bring about further progress. The form of the stable is another plus, and the son of Lope De Vega is narrowly preferred to Gladius, who scored on debut at Kempton over 1m in a contest that has worked out well since. Spanish Train got the hang of things late in the piece at the same track last month and he is another to consider.

Top Tip: ARABIAN FORCE (5)

9 (4)		24165-5	MISS LAMAI (IRE) 31 D b f Mehmas - Tough Spirit	3 8 - 13	C Lee K R Burke	97

ATR VERDICT: Aesterius took the Flying Childers at Doncaster prior to a respectable sixth in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint at Del Mar last season and his chance is there for all to see. However, STAR OF MEHMAS did well to finish as close as third in Listed company at Chelmsford on her return and may take a big step forward. Richard Hughes' filly has plenty of pace and, with a smoother trip on the drop from 6f, she could be the one to beat. Mr Lightside and Tropical Storm are in with a shout too.

Top Tip: STAR OF MEHMAS (8)

ATR VERDICT: Although last of six in a warm Ascot novice on her debut, PRINCESS RASCAL showed plenty and is expected to step forward today. The daughter of Pinatubo looked outpaced approaching the furlong marker and, with stamina on the dam's side, these extra couple of furlongs will suit. Club Class is another that should benefit from a step up in trip, while the market can guide regarding debutant Cloaks Of Gold and the returning Lightning Touch, who hasn't been seen since December 2023.

ATR VERDICT: Jan Steen and WISE APPROACH both made winning debuts and the experience will count for a lot. The former impressed with a romp in a Thirsk maiden and is a bright prospect for Karl Burke's yard. However, it was a deeper contest Wise Approach won at Ascot and with a return there possible for something like the Coventry at the Royal meeting, this provides an ideal stepping stone for Godolphin's 1,000,000gns son of Mehmas. The betting should be informative where newcomers such as Full Gas, First Legion and Spaceman are concerned.

ATR VERDICT: VAN AERT was able to justify short-priced favouritism on his handicap bow at Kempton last month. The gelded son of Masar did have a tendency to hang that day though and it is no surprise to see cheekpieces employed for the first time. Returning to turf shouldn't be an issue, and a 6lb rise should be no barrier to further success either. Wolverhampton scorer Yellow Card is a threat, although he might be booked for second. Top Of Pleinmont heads the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Anniversary and RAHIEBB boast almost identical form profiles and hold significant chances. The former resumes with scope for progression in handicaps, although this is his first start since October and the prospect of fast ground could be problematic. Rahiebb has thrived with two respectable second-placed finishes since he made a winning debut at Newcastle in March. Given the son of Frankel was conceding a penalty to a promising type at Haydock, his most recent effort looks highly commendable. Merchant and Tuscan Star are other strong contenders.

ATR VERDICT: Luke Catton has done well for John and Thady Gosden, and can take centre stage again with WESTRIDGE. The four-year-old is joint top-weight with Trouville and there is unlikely to be much between them if this goes true to form. However, Catton's mount has bags of scope for improvement and, with first-time cheekpieces added, he can better month's promising return over 1m2f at Newbury. Way Of Life and recent Haydock winner Afloat are other solid options.

ATR VERDICT: A step forward from his Catterick second would put Belgravian firmly in contention, although he has been expensive to follow and is vulnerable to improvers on his Polytrack debut. GALLIVANTED has course experience and can use that to his advantage. When last seen, he was a respectable third over a mile in a race that has worked out well. Stepping up in distance could be ideal back here for his seasonal debut. John T also warrants serious thought.

ATR VERDICT: DOWN TO THE KID continues to go from strength to strength and a 6lb rise for his most recent success at Southwell may not be enough to prevent him from landing the four-timer, despite a wide draw. A promising second on his first start as a gelding at the same venue, Arctic Dawn is a key player, along with Ata Rangi, who arrives on a hat-trick after scoring comfortably over C&D on his first appearance for the Ed Walker team.

Top Tip: DOWN TO THE KID (8)

Watch out for: ATA RANGI (3)

8 (7)		462335	DOUBLETHETROUBLE 17 D ch g Pearl Secret - Kirunavaara	7 9 - 4p	Aidan Keeley J Butler	64

ATR VERDICT: CURRUMBIN was in fine form on the all-weather prior to struggling at Goodwood and this appeals as an ideal opportunity for him to gain a third career success off what looks a workable mark. A promising third over C&D last time out, Moel Arthur is capable of being in the shake-up again, while course winner Caprelo should have more to come in first-time cheekpieces.

Top Tip: CURRUMBIN (3)

Watch out for: CAPRELO (2)
