ATR VERDICT: ERNEST GRAY showed a big chunk of improvement when sporting first-time cheekpieces to score in good style at Worcester last month and the assessor may have been kind to only put him up 4lb. With a similar performance, he will prove tough to beat. Pounding Poet finished a close third in a stronger event at Ayr and is a previous C&D winner to take seriously. Party Business makes more appeal than Roger Pol.

ATR VERDICT: Although MIDNIGHT CITY hasn't been at his best on turf recently, a return to the all-weather could spark an improved performance. Richard Spencer's charge finds himself well handicapped from a mark of 68 and a couple of his best efforts came in the returning cheekpieces. Blewbarton is 2lb better off with his Kempton conqueror Ballsgrove Boy and the pair are likely to be closely matched again. Dutch Finale, who disappointed having been well supported on his seasonal return at Nottingham, could also step forward.

ATR VERDICT: LADY JAGO accounted for her nearest rival by two lengths at Ludlow last month and she now takes a step back up in trip. The six-year-old is only 2lb higher and looks well placed to complete a double. Scarlet O'Tara has shown a good amount of ability over the smaller obstacles and is an interesting contender on her chasing debut. Of the remainder, Lost Connections makes the most appeal.

ATR VERDICT: First-time cheekpieces will need to work the oracle for Lazzar, who had no obvious excuse when beaten at prohibitive odds at Brighton on Monday. He will be a player should they do the trick, but it is KEYBAAR that gets the nod. The son of Earthlight shaped with considerable promise on his racecourse bow at Kempton in April and progress looks highly likely. Musical Angel and Dannick are two others to note.

ATR VERDICT: Having returned to form with a good second over 2m at Bangor last month, LIPA K could be poised to strike. A 1lb rise in the ratings looks more than fair for the seven-year-old, and a return to 2m4f holds no fears. Ikigai Star is only 3lb higher than his recent triumph at Huntingdon and is feared most, ahead of Ghasham, who has champion jockey Sean Bowen in the plate.

ATR VERDICT: LAZIEELUNCH looked to be coming back to form on his second start since being gelded when third over two furlongs further at Chelmsford and, with two wins at a mile, one over C&D, he ticks plenty of boxes. Transparent pulled too hard at Goodwood before weakening late on. If Tom Marquand can get him to settle then he could mount a serious challenge, leaving handicap debutant Padua and Wolverhampton second Threatening to battle it out for the remaining podium spot.

ATR VERDICT: Salley Gardens finished his time with Olly Murphy by completing a double when scoring over C&D last month and warrants respect in his bid for a hat-trick. However, a further 5lb rise demands another career best from the son of Yeats, and it could be worth chancing chase-debutant GOLDEN AMBITION. Last month's spin over hurdles at Fontwell should have put the six-year-old spot-on and the reapplication of blinkers can only help. No But I Will is also noted.

ATR VERDICT: MINERVA has an excellent pedigree and cost 1,500,000gns as a yearling. By Frankel, her Group 2-winning dam is a sister to Group 1 winner Mohaather and with a half-sister having scored at juvenile Group 3 level, she should be smart. Thenandnow's yard has been totally out of form, although has shown some recent encouragement and this filly has a very notable pedigree. By Dubawi, her dam won the Group 1 Marcel Boussac. Little Sure Shot is out of a Group 3 winner who has already produced three nice winners.

Top Tip: MINERVA (3)
