ATR VERDICT: It is difficult to oppose CALANDAGAN, who produced numerous top-class performances last season, including a six-length romp in the King Edward VII Stakes and a highly-creditable second to City Of Troy in the Juddmonte International. There was a lot to like about his comeback second in the Dubai Sheema Classic, coming from off the pace and recording the best finishing sectionals, and a first Group 1 success looms large. Last year's St Leger hero Jan Brueghel will appreciate stepping back up in distance and rates the biggest threat, ahead of Hong Kong Vase scorer Giavellotto, who was behind Calandagan at Meydan.

Top Tip: CALANDAGAN (3)

Watch out for: JAN BRUEGHEL (6)

ATR VERDICT: Having spreadeagled the field over 5f at Carlisle seven days ago, CANON'S HOUSE could be tough to peg back on his follow-up bid. The four-year-old is entitled to build on that seasonal debut and neither a 5lb penalty or extra furlong may be enough to stop him. Sugar Baby supplemented his Redcar triumph with a close-up second at the same venue in mid-May. Peter Niven's charge is feared most, ahead of fellow in-form rival Captain Vallo.

ATR VERDICT: MUTAAWID went some way to living up to his top-class pedigree when scoring easily at Newmarket and a 10lb rise may not be enough to stop him from going in again. Botanical must enter calculations on his first start in handicap company since finishing second in the John Smith's Cup last summer, while Irish raider Akecheta caught the eye when not getting a clear run and keeping on late in a valuable contest over a mile at the Curragh. Arriving here on a four-timer after ending last season in top form, Ashariba is of interest on her return, as are Rathgar and Defiance.

Long Handicap: Hope Hill 9 - 12

ATR VERDICT: More positive tactics saw GUILLAUME finishing a close-up second at Kelso 12 days ago and a similar approach may prove fruitful. Donald McCain's charge makes grand appeal racing off an unchanged mark and may fend off Tropical Talent. The six-year-old is reverting to hurdles off a career-low mark and shouldn't be underestimated. Hope Hill could also have a say on the back of a 131-day layoff.

ATR VERDICT: Having been collared in the closing stages at Southwell recently, MARAJITO makes grand appeal on this quick turnaround. Tim Easterby's filly is due to go up 3lb in the handicap and compensation could be on the cards. The hat-trick seeking Over Spiced is effectively 2lb well-in and isn't taken lightly in her current mood, while Larchill Lass is also worth a look reverting to 5f.

ATR VERDICT: DESERT FLOWER looks more than capable of giving Charlie Appleby a first Oaks success. Unbeaten in five career outings, the daughter of Night Of Thunder only ever seems to do enough and the way she finished off the 1000 Guineas gave a strong indication that she may relish this rise in distance. A taking winner of the Cheshire Oaks, Minnie Hauk must enter calculations as a proven stayer but the best of the Ballydoyle contingent may be Whirl, who produced a career-best performance when landing the Musidora at York. Hailing from a family that includes Oaks winner Look Here, Revoir is another to consider on the rise in trip, as is the supplemented Elwateen, who caught the eye on only her second start when a highly-encouraging fourth in the Guineas.

ATR VERDICT: LONE PIPER was far from disgraced when posting a sixth-placed reappearance in a 14-runner affair over 1m2f at Newbury in April. The son of Kingman is a potential improver over today's extra quarter-mile distance and any improvement could see him back in the winner's enclosure. Thrilling Dream ended last year's campaign with a solid third at Southwell and he warrants consideration, despite the removal of headgear. Lightening Company enters calculations as well.
