ATR VERDICT: Despite still showing plenty of greenness, I'M A BELIEVER recorded his first career triumph at Market Rasen earlier in the month. The Twiston-Davies' four-year-old is likely to have lots of improvement in him and can defy his 7lb penalty. Bogha Baiste is related to winners and, with the Fergal O'Brien yard in red-hot form, he is one to take seriously. 85,000-pounds purchase Rony Has needs to be monitored closely in betting.

ATR VERDICT: Nifty progressed from her introduction when third here to justify odds-on favouritism in good style at Chelmsford and is one to watch out for. However, she has a penalty and is passed over in favour of WOJTEK, who ran green when filling the runner-up spot over C&D. With that experience under his belt, he could take a big leap forward to strike. Comic Hero would have learned a lot from his seventh on debut at Bath and isn't out of it either.

ATR VERDICT: Having offered plenty of encouragement with her second-placed reappearance in a Listed event at Epsom, SAQQARA SANDS could be poised to strike. Any further deterioration in ground conditions is likely to boost the chances of Ralph Beckett's filly and she's taken to repel chief rival Anshoda. The daughter of Inns Of Court landed a Group 3 as a juvenile and reverting to her last winning distance should suit. Verse Of Love completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Montpellier made it two wins from two starts when on target at Newbury last month. Both of those victories have come over 7f, though, and he will need to prove himself at this shorter trip. He still merits respect, but it is DARK THIRTY who shades preference. Second in a warm class 2 at York, he remains well handicapped from 1lb higher and is fancied to go one place better. Haydock scorer Kodi Lion can prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Croeso Cymraeg bagged a 12th career victory at Lingfield 18 days ago and the veteran warrants respect remaining in class 4 company. However, he will need to improve to defy a 4lb rise and may prove vulnerable to handicap debutant ROGUE MILLIONS. James Owen's three-year-old opened his account at Chepstow with something in hand and an opening mark of 87 looks workable. Per Contra can also have a say.

ATR VERDICT: ASMEN WARRIOR has shown plenty of ability across his five career starts and this looks an excellent opportunity to break the maiden tag. A close-up fourth in a 0-95 handicap at York, dropping back into maiden company should aid his cause and first-time cheekpieces are another potential source of improvement. Wootton Bassett filly Requisite hasn't been seen since October but she will appreciate a step up in trip and must enter calculations, despite the absence. Only One Blue is also noted.

ATR VERDICT: HAVANA ANNA sets a high standard and should prove difficult to beat. The Donnacha O'Brien-trained filly made a promising debut when third at Navan last month and the form received a major boost when the first two both won at Royal Ascot last week. She was subsequently caught close home over 6f at Cork and the drop back to the minimum trip should suit. Dawn Romance cost 160,000gns at the Craven Breeze-Up Sale and the Mehmas filly is out of a winning daughter of Dutch Art, while Darwin's Angel is a half-sister to three winners, including two who won as juveniles.

ATR VERDICT: Iris Dancer continued her resurgence when completing a Hamilton double last week and warrants respect, despite shouldering a 4lb penalty. However, the daughter of Kodiak has yet to score beyond 6f and today's stiff finish over 7f may expose her stamina, which could leave the door open for ORANGESANDLEMONS. A 2lb nudge up the ratings for the Ed Bethell-trained filly's second here looks workable, with first-time cheekpieces forecast to help. Shining Pearl is worth a second look now reverting to handicap company.

ATR VERDICT: Maids Head recorded her first career success at Chelmsford on her most recent start and is likely to have her supporters, despite being 3lb higher. That said, the vote goes to MAHRA'S LOVE, who may appreciate a more conventional track after placing on her handicap bow at Goodwood earlier in the month. Others for the shortlist include Sychell and Stella Hogan.

ATR VERDICT: Cape Orator offered enough encouragement on his debut sixth behind Chesham hero Humidity at Newbury last month to suggest that he can score at this level and the son of Mohaather should be all the sharper with that experience under his belt. However, it could be worth chancing newcomer CAPTAIN FOX, a 105,000gns purchase in April, who may take some stopping if sharing the same ability as his Listed-winning half-sister Miss Lamai. Fellow debutant Ghost Mode is also worth a second look in the betting.

ATR VERDICT: Having continued her upward trajectory when completing a double at Chelmsford six days ago, penultimate C&D winner DUBAI BEACH is difficult to oppose. A 5lb penalty for the four-year-old's latest triumph is unlikely to prevent another bold bid and a hat-trick may beckon. The Outlaw regained the winning thread at Carlisle last month and warrants respect in his follow-up bid, but Ralph Beckett's colt is effectively 12lb higher in the ratings without Jack Dace's 7lb claim. With that in mind, the biggest danger may emerge from reopposing third Port Road.

ATR VERDICT: LAZIEELUNCH posted his best effort of the season when finishing a close-up second at Lingfield earlier this month and compensation could be on the horizon. Although a 4lb higher mark demands more, the son of Without Parole is relatively unexposed over a mile and looks more than capable of scoring at this level. Fellow last-time-out runner-up Lunar Orbit's profile is not too dissimilar to the selection and is a feasible alternative, while Stellenbosch is the pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: LAZIEELUNCH (4)

ATR VERDICT: FRAM CASTLE left it late to get up over C&D a fortnight ago but it was evident that returning to two miles was of real benefit and he could go in again from 2lb higher. Letmebethelboss was an impressive winner over 1m6f at Southwell last month. He isn't one to be taken lightly, while the usually reliable Balgowan is expected to bounce back from a below-par display at Lingfield.

Top Tip: FRAM CASTLE (5)

Watch out for: LETMEBETHEBOSS (4)
