ATR VERDICT: An Bradan Feasa won for the first time on the level at Catterick in April and has since backed that up with a couple of creditable efforts. Stepping up in trip may yield further progression, but he might face a stiffer task against some unexposed three-year-olds. Belgravian shed the maiden tag on his handicap debut at Doncaster and is respected off 4lb higher. However, DEEP WATER BAY was a touch unlucky at Nottingham when hampered late on and can gain compensation.

Top Tip: DEEP WATER BAY (8)

ATR VERDICT: ZIGGY'S MISSILE benefited from a drop in class to score over C&D and the son of Blue Point has every opportunity for further success, despite a 4lb rise. Tan Rapido boasts form with the selection from their meeting at Southwell in April, which gives him a chance of being competitive. The return to the all-weather is a positive for Almaty Star, while last year's winner The Thames Boatman heads the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: PIXIE DIVA made a promising start to her career when running out a comfortable winner at Lingfield and the manner of that performance suggested the extra furlong on this occasion may see her in an even better light. Fellow debut scorer Fantasy Obsessor has to enter calculations, while Miss Chester and Darn Hot Time can fight it out for the minor honours.

ATR VERDICT: LITTLE KEILEE found the competition too hot in a higher grade at Newmarket last week. She finished runner-up at the same track before that, in a race that has worked out well, and a similar effort here could see James Owen's mare pick up the winning thread. Finbar's Lad acquitted himself well when third at Doncaster and is likely to prove competitive back on the all-weather. Rich Rhythm and Stella Hogan are not without claims, although they haven't been done any favours with the high.

Top Tip: LITTLE KEILEE (4)

ATR VERDICT: Jabaara arrives fresh from a Listed victory at Musselburgh, although she will need to be quickly away from her high draw to take up her usual prominent position. Miss Information represents last year's winning yard and could prove competitive at this level after landing the Kensington Palace at Royal Ascot, but CLOUD COVER may edge affairs. The daughter of Night Of Thunder won a Listed contest on the Polytrack at Deauville back in December and, rested since disappointing at the All-Weather Championships in April, James Tate's mare is taken to bounce back.

ATR VERDICT: MR HAMPSTEAD's mid-division finish in the Ascot Stakes at the Royal meeting reads well and the son of Galileo is a most notable option back in these much calmer waters. Now tried with a tongue-tie added, this low-mileage four-year-old could be a cut above the rest if he adapts to the surface on his Polytrack debut. Blindedbythelights, Trouville and Vino Victrix add depth to the race and are key players suggested for the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Charlie Johnston boasts an impressive current strike-rate and having successfully overseen preparations for the winner of this race 12 months ago, BAMBURGH can follow suit for the in-form yard. A respectable second at Haydock recently, the son of Zoffany won't need to find much to gain a first career success, despite running off 2lb higher. Fox Avatar and Tribal Wisdom can give the selection the most to think about.

Top Tip: BAMBURGH (3)

Watch out for: FOX AVATAR (5)
