5 (5)		4	SHOWCASIS OASIS 13 b f Showcasing - Pornstar Martini	2 9 - 0t	Cieren Fallon James Owen	-

ATR VERDICT: Although Magic Stone has to be taken very seriously after finishing second on his last two starts, giving 5lb to the Richard Hughes filly ROSE OF SPAIN looks a big ask. Beaten by the highly regarded Miss YeChance at Catterick last month with the first two clear of the rest, the added furlong now may bring plenty of improvement. Showcasis Oasis was beaten a length and a quarter when fourth at Windsor on her debut and is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Homestrait has yet to finish outside of the first two places in six outings to date and a repeat of her latest second at Carlisle should see her in the thick of the action once more. However, SOCIAL EXCLUSION looks the most compelling. The daughter of Lope Y Fernandez posted a solid third at Ripon recently and this longer trip should help. Going Commando completes the shortlist.

8 (2)		66838	INVINCIBLE ANNIE (IRE) 14 b f Invincible Army - Essenza	2 8 - 8p1	Rowan Scott Roger Fell	50

ATR VERDICT: Lexington Express finished a close third on her nursery bow at Chepstow last month and has to be respected off the same mark. However, PREMINISION wasn't disgraced in fourth over 6f here last time and this step up in trip looks a good move. She could have more to come and can capitalise on a 2lb lower rating. London isn't ruled out either.

ATR VERDICT: Abate was a convincing winner with first-time blinkers added at Lingfield last month. Equally effective over 6f, stepping up a furlong shouldn't be an issue and another bold showing is likely. However, this is competitive and a 6lb rise demands more. With that in mind, the attractively-weighted CHARLIE MASON shades preference after hinting at a revival with a couple of recent third-placed finishes in similar company. The Thames Boatman and Gold Star Hero also make the shortlist.

Top Tip: CHARLIE MASON (12)

10 (4)		669989	INVINCIBLE CROWN (IRE) 23 D b g Inns Of Court - Nurse Dee	3 8 - 11t1	Joanna Mason Mrs R Carr	61

ATR VERDICT: With two wins from his last three starts, the latest of those coming at Doncaster, KING'S CROWN could be the answer once more. Michael Dods' charge was only raised 3lb for that Town Moor triumph and there is no obvious reason he shouldn't go close. Parisiac struggled at Hamilton three weeks ago but he must be of interest now dropped in class. Others to note include Glory Fighter and Miss Brazen.

ATR VERDICT: AL HUSSAR produced a much better effort when hitting the woodwork in this class at Thirsk last week and is 2lb well-in compared to future events. Grant Tuer's three-year-old might only need to reproduce that level of form in order to go one better. Protest Rally is a C&D winner who wasn't disgraced in fourth over track and trip last time and is one to take seriously. Pop Star is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Although no match for an impressive winner in the Old Newton Cup at Haydock last time out, it was still a fine effort in defeat from PADDY THE SQUIRE. The son of Golden Horn has much less on his plate here and compensation could await despite having a 2lb higher mark to contend with. Melek Alreeh went agonisingly close at Newbury last time and he merits plenty of respect, as does the lightly-raced Ribble Vibe, for all that there is a suspicion slower ground would be more suitable for him.

ATR VERDICT: SIMPLE STAR ticks plenty of boxes with two C&D successes and two wins over hurdles since. Although not at his best recently with fifth of six here over 2m, he may be allowed to make his own pace dropping back in trip. Naturalia seems likely to prove popular after winning by a head at Ayr last month, but an added 3lb means she will have to improve, while handicap debutant Storm On Jura is worth a market watch stepping up in trip.

Top Tip: SIMPLE STAR (1)
