ATR VERDICT: The unexposed PAL JOEY got off the mark on his first start in handicap company at Haydock in July and a 3lb rise may underestimate the son of Showcasing. Territorial Knight also scored on his most recent outing and could give the selection plenty to think about. Lord Roxby edges out Rainbow Nebula and Far Above The Law to be the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: JAZL displayed plenty of promise, despite being turned over as favourite, when filling the runner-up berth at Thirsk on his debut. The son of No Nay Never should only improve for that experience and can get off the mark here. Ironwill also showed ability when third on his racecourse bow at Salisbury in July and looks next best, ahead of Green Dame.

ATR VERDICT: YOU ARE EVERYTHING has improved for the return to sprinting. She seems versatile as regards to the going, winning on soft at Chepstow before scoring again on good ground at Leicester, and Tony Carroll's inmate should make a bold bid for the hat-trick. Starsong struck here on her penultimate start and finished a creditable fourth in a tougher Lingfield contest last time, while Windsor runner-up Valadero is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: Novice winner ICE SOVEREIGNS had little trouble disposing of the opposition when landing the odds over C&D. That form looks stronger in hindsight, given the subsequent success of the runner-up, and Charlie Johnston's promising filly can make a winning start in nurseries. Awraad finished a close second over 6f in Listed company at Ripon and should feature, while the improving Gascony won at Epsom in fine style and is not out of it either.

ATR VERDICT: The step up in class proved beyond VOIX DE BOCELLI over 1m4f here last time. However, Henrietta Knight's charge remains on a workable mark and returns to this lower grade with strong claims having already won over C&D on a couple of occasions this season. Guendolen also warrants plenty of respect back at this level, with Racing Demon and Night Bear others to consider in an open affair.

ATR VERDICT: It could pay to stick with RED MIRAGE in his current frame of mind. The son of Showcasing finished a respectable third at Kempton, having scored in this lower grade at Doncaster before that, when Rich Rhythm (second) and Beale Street (third) filled the places. The latter pair are not out of it, although last month's Haydock third One Night Thunder may prove a bigger danger off his current mark.

ATR VERDICT: Beaten less than a length in his attempt to complete a double at Beverley, MILTEYE should appreciate a return to Carlisle, having scored over C&D on his penultimate start off 3lb lower. Harriet Bethell's charge should have too much for last-start Newmarket third Kaaranah, as well as Sonic Pioneer, who has been runner-up on three of his last four starts and deserves a change in luck.

ATR VERDICT: This can go the way of JEZ BOMB, who has been in a rich vein of form of late and a further 3lb rise for his recent success at Thirsk may not be enough to prevent him from rounding out the hat-trick on the slight rise in distance. Another who has been upwardly mobile lately is Quirke On Parole and she must enter calculations along with Doncaster winner Sweet Kiss, who has a 4lb hike to overcome.
