ATR VERDICT: Hallelujah U wasn't beaten far in the Queen's Vase and was third behind Scandinavia in the Bahrain Trophy, and his connections have won this race for the past two seasons with Burdett Road and East India Dock. That pair had previous jumping experience, though, something PRECIOUS MAN has from Auteuil, where he had subsequent winners behind when successful in May. He is just preferred to fellow French recruit Parchment, who impressed at Clairefontaine and has since joined David Pipe. Secret Force looked a natural at Punchestown and must be feared.

Top Tip: PRECIOUS MAN (1)

ATR VERDICT: GET ON GEORGE confirmed the promise of his narrow bumper defeat on debut at Hexham when filling fourth place on his first start over hurdles at Carlisle. On that evidence, the five-year-old could be hard to beat in this company. Smart Decision is already a three-time winner over hurdles, but they were Junior NH contests last season and this will demand more from him. Uptown Dandy is the clear pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: GET ON GEORGE (1)

ATR VERDICT: Even accounting for the fact that AUREA FORTUNA is 15lb higher than for last month's comfortable Punchestown triumph, he is still 5lb below his hurdles rating. He is unlikely to slip under the radar with punters, but should be open to plenty more improvement. Sound And Fury contributed to Ben Pauling's fine recent run when making a successful comeback at Carlisle. Kelce offered plenty of encouragement when fourth under today's rider over C&D last month, and represents last year's winning stable. Imperial Alex has been freshened up following a Perth victory and commands attention too.

8		123131	SALIGO BAY (IRE) 14 CD b g New Bay - Glorification	7 10 - 10	Jonathan England S England	112

ATR VERDICT: The progressive Saligo Bay has to be given the utmost respect after his C&D win two weeks ago, but a chance can be taken on MALYSTIC. Peter Niven's veteran has not been seen over hurdles since 2020, but has proven to be a quality chaser since then. He won at Kelso in September off a mark of 129 and that suggests that he can play a big role here off just 1lb higher. Bust A Move and Hara Kiri are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Dan Skelton treads the same path as he did with last year's winner L'eau Du Sud, with Be Aware arriving after making a successful chasing debut in a Stratford handicap. July Flower also made a seamless transition to fences when scoring at Limerick and is a player in receipt of the mares' allowance, but BURDETT ROAD is a class act. Victorious at this meeting for the past two years, James Owen's five-year-old avoided the Champion Hurdle drama to pick up the silver medal and warmed up for this new test with a solid second behind Rubaud at Kempton.

ATR VERDICT: Cases can be made for all of these, but none more so than MEETMEBYTHESEA. Ben Pauling's gelding won three times over hurdles as a novice and was only narrowly denied when last seen in the valuable EBF Final at Sandown in March. Recent Ayr winner Ruby Island could prove to be his main danger, despite a 7lb rise, with Pleasington completing the shortlist.

6		342-221	MOZZIES SISTER 20 D b m Arctic Cosmos - Merryisker	6 10 - 7	Alex Harvey D Queally	132

ATR VERDICT: Gordon Elliott's THE YELLOW CLAY is two from two over hurdles at this venue and his proven ability on testing ground will be a real asset to him. Although he would prefer a sounder surface, he powered clear on heavy ground to land a Grade 3 at this festival last year. Jetara is race-fit from the Flat and has a couple of placed efforts in Grade 1 company at Aintree and Punchestown to call upon. She has the assistance of Paul Townend and is a big player. Elliott's Maxxum is only rated 3lb inferior to The Yellow Clay and is a winner at Grade 2 level over flights around here. He is more than capable of a big run from the front.
