ATR VERDICT: TEN CARAT HARRY has won three of his five starts to date and that includes both outings in nursery company. A 2lb rise for the latest of those victories should be workable and Jamie Osborne's gelding tops the shortlist. Meelaf has not been seen since August but she was highly tried earlier in the year and should not be underestimated in this company. Cases can be made for all of the remainder, but Fermain is the pick of them.

Long Handicap: Top Drawer 9 - 9

ATR VERDICT: The hat-trick seeking Sir Carnegie is bound to have his supporters, but is now 3lb higher than his most recent success at Kelso and that might open the door for LELANT. Evan Williams' charge bounced back to form to score by just over three lengths at this level at Hereford last month and if the seven-year-old is in similar form, he will prove hard to beat. Gata Ban completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: LELANT (4)

ATR VERDICT: OFF SPIN bounced back to form when filling second place over 1m1f at Newmarket last month and Tim Easterby's gelding can go one better against this field. Westcombe showed more, despite being a beaten favourite, on his handicap bow at Leicester in May and he should not be written off just yet. Must Believe and Age Of Time are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: AMBER HONEY had plenty in hand when winning over a mile here last week and Ed Dunlop's filly may have enough in the locker to defy a 6lb penalty on this occasion. Up The Anti also won her most recent outing, this time at Bath, and she has to be noted, while Portoro may be able to reward each-way support.

ATR VERDICT: BULLINGTON BRY was disappointing at Newmarket when last seen in August but the son of Bated Breath had posted a career-best effort prior when second at Ffos Las. A repeat of that effort might see him get off the mark. Prefer The Sister has been knocking on the door recently and is capable of another decent showing, while Moonlight Bomb and Initial Blue are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Sweet Kiss occupied the runner-up berth in heavy conditions at Nottingham last month and commands respect, but it may pay to side with GOLSPIE. Patrick Morris' charge made the frame over course and distance on Saturday and provided the son of Ribchester copes with this quick turnaround, he could be the one to beat. Percy Willis may also have a say.

ATR VERDICT: The consistent Educate has gone close on his last three starts here and another solid bid is expected from Jim Goldie's charge. However, his conqueror at the start of the month, PRINCE ACHILLE, bounced back to form on that occasion and is taken to confirm that form, despite a 5lb rise. Mystical Maria can be forgiven her latest effort at Nottingham and is capable of being in the mix.

Long Handicap: Sporting Hero 8 - 5

ATR VERDICT: LITTLE QUEENIE had Sir Les Patterson back in fourth when just denied by Barbapapa over C&D and gets the vote to record an eighth career win and fifth at this venue, with Colin Keane a significant booking. Big Gossey and Sir Les Patterson filled the minor placings in the valuable Bold Lad Handicap at the Curragh on Champions Weekend, while Valiant Force won at Royal Ascot as a juvenile and remains a classy sort, winning over 5f here last month. Dontspoilasale impressed when beating Sporting Hero over C&D and then probably found 7f too far behind Little Empire here last Friday.

ATR VERDICT: Elan D'or has found one too good in each of his last two outings, most recently over this trip at Kempton, and he holds an obvious chance. Luminare might be worth another chance after failing to justify favouritism at Windsor, but SEEWAY gets the vote. The son of Galiway showed more when third at Newmarket last month and an opening mark of 74 looks workable. With Toby Moore claiming a handy 7lb, he might the one to side with.

ATR VERDICT: BINTJAN readily took care of her nearest rival by just over three lengths at Wolverhampton last month and was hit with a 8lb rise. Considering the manner of that success, the daughter of Kodiak might be up to the task. Vixey is a reliable performer and finished a creditable third at Newmarket last time, so she is one to watch out for. Stellenbosch is another to consider.

Long Handicap: Ya Rayah 8 - 13, Darlo Lady 8 - 13, Petersburg 8 - 12

ATR VERDICT: Nebula Stars arguably brings the best most recent form to the table after his third at Lingfield earlier this month, but a chance can be taken on PETERSBURG. James Owen's charge hasn't shown a great deal in three outings in maiden/novice company but is likely to prove a different proposition on his handicap bow. This represents just his second appearance for the stable and he could improve for this step up in distance. Windsor Pass looks best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: BALLYBAYMOONSHINER won over C&D in May and was a close third on his only subsequent start at Chepstow the following month. On that evidence, it would be no surprise to see the seven-year-old make a winning return here. The recent Bath second Mister Sandman could prove to be the main danger, although Adace and Tam Lin are others who arrive with valid form claims.

With the promise of more to come, the three-year-old could get off the mark here. Fornido won over 1m6f at Southwell a month ago and has to be noted once again, while Forglen and Blue Siam complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: The recent Kempton winner Justcallmepete is likely to be popular once again, although a 5lb penalty for that success is a slight concern. Similar comments apply to the hat-trick seeking General Assembly, so preference is for SENSORIUM, who won well over C&D last month and a 5lb subsequent rise is negated by Toby Moore's 7lb claim. Tyger Bay edges out Fantasy Master to be next best.

ATR VERDICT: Sprightly Dance took a step forward from her second on debut at Yarmouth to get off the mark at Wolverhampton last time and is respected. However, she might find it tough to give her penalty away to GOOD OLD DAYS. The Gosdens' filly outran her odds of 12/1 to take the silver medal home at this venue earlier this month and, with the potential for more to come, she could be the one to beat. Quamby is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: This looks a wide-open contest, so only a tentative vote goes to LOVE YOUR WORK. Darryll Holland's nine-year-old is a course winner who finished second in this grade over track and trip on his latest outing and could capitalise on an unchanged rating. Kartini sports a first-time tongue-tie in the hope of bringing out improvement on just her second outing in a handicap, so she is of interest. Betty Bassett isn't ruled out either.
