ATR VERDICT: Cara Tuke has struck up a good partnership with SUPERIOR COUNCIL and Iain Jardine's course regular maintained his excellent consistency when pipped last time. He is much more effective at 6f, but should see out the extra furlong and is suited by the conditions of this race. Green Valentine and Ring Of Gold share the top rating of 50 with the selection, but aren't in anything like the same sort of form so Sir Maxi and Rory could be the ones for the places.

Top Tip: SUPERIOR COUNCIL (10)

Watch out for: SIR MAXI (9)

ATR VERDICT: It was hard not to be mightily impressed by UBATUBA's romp on his debut under Rules at this venue last month and there will be plenty more to come. The point-to-point winner looks an exciting prospect and can defy his penalty before moving on to bigger assignments. Starzand possesses plenty of ability and was far from disgraced in second under a penalty at Ffos Las so he has to be respected. Hot To Go completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: UBATUBA (4)

ATR VERDICT: STARRYFIELD was odds-on to better his encouraging Doncaster debut on his return over 6f here, only to be put in his place by what will probably turn out to be a classy colt. The son of Starspangledbanner clearly possesses a good level of ability and can make it third-time lucky. Dandy Breeze went very close to making a successful beginning to his career over C&D and has to be feared. Egotistical should build on her Southwell third, and Mad Dash can't be ruled out either.

ATR VERDICT: Heeztheboy has only tasted defeat once in five starts since switching to the Gary Hanmer yard and it's easy to understand why he will have his supporters. Last-time-out Warwick scorer Happy And Fine has to be respected, but the vote goes to TARAS HALLS. The eight-year-old only found one too good in this grade at Haydock and if reproducing that level of form, he could be the one to beat.

ATR VERDICT: AISLING OSCAR has been a revelation since joining the Adrian Keatley team and made it five wins on the bounce - all at this venue - over 7f last week. That was an apprentices' race so he escapes a penalty and he can continue on his merry way. The runner-up seven days ago had previously denied Little Ted in a head-bobbing finish over the same C&D and Tim Easterby's veteran could make a race of it. Tasever, Rogue Officer and Sea Legend have place claims.

ATR VERDICT: SILKY WILKIE showed improved form when reverting to the all-weather at Lingfield a fortnight ago and if building on that third over this trip, the Karl Burke-trained seven-year-old could strike off bottom weight. Betsen got there just in time to spring a surprise at Southwell and another bold showing looks assured, while it's also worth keeping a close eye on Badri and Coachello.

Top Tip: SILKY WILKIE (7)

ATR VERDICT: TIGERS MOON has improved markedly since going handicapping and has won two of his last three starts. Assuming he handles this softer surface, Tom Ellis' charge ought to go well in his current mood. Razzle Dazzle Boy went agonisingly close at Chepstow and is a must for the shortlist, while a big run from At The Oche would come as no surprise.

ATR VERDICT: Apart from one slightly lacklustre effort here before Christmas, TEARDROPS has made winning over C&D look fairly easy and there is likely more to come from this progressive sprinter. Penalised for last week's success, Richard Spencer's charge can continue on an upward trajectory and thwart Spartan Fighter's hat-trick bid in the process. If they go hard up front, Ana Emaraaty could be staying on late for at least a place.

ATR VERDICT: LE GALLI BIER will be winning a race like this sooner rather than later if solid efforts at Windsor and Fontwell towards the back end of last year are anything to go by. Jeu D'opale filled the runner-up berth at Lingfield and must be respected for a trainer/jockey combination that does really well at this track. Kapamazov is another to bear in mind.

ATR VERDICT: ECO POWER BOY has done well since returning to all-weather duty and built on an encouraging C&D fifth when taking the silver medal here on New Year's Day. On that evidence, it won't be long before he wins a race of this nature. Of the others, Instant Bond and Ramon Di Loria are closely matched and Yorkshire Glory is usually thereabouts.

ATR VERDICT: If DIGITAL handles the quick turnaround, he might be able to go one place better than last week's neck second over C&D. He's holding his form well and will be ridden positively. Our Absent Friends has had a small break since winning here 35 days ago and commands respect along with the second Ganesha, who also finished runner-up here the time before.

ATR VERDICT: Hannah Dring steered OVERLOOKED into third in a similar race over C&D and Harriet Bethell's five-year-old went one better, also over track and trip, last time. He can continue his forward momentum to finally get off the mark, with Rainwater expected to relish the drop from a mile and is put forward as the primary threat. In contrast, No Knee Never goes up in trip and, along with Onemorenomore, rounds out the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: HUNKY DORY has held his form really well since moving to Mick Appleby's yard and gained just reward for his consistency when successful over C&D. A 4lb rise requires more of him, but there was a subsequent winner back in third so he could be up to the task. Hierarchy beat him at Kempton last month and is actually 3lb better off, although he didn't fire at Lingfield afterwards and arrives with something to prove. Gunlock won't be far away, while Hundred Caps has been freshened up.

ATR VERDICT: SI GRASS made an introduction full of promise when getting closest to a rival who is now rated 101 at Newmarket. Charlie Johnston has given his filly time to strengthen and as long as she handles the surface, she should be too strong. Itica proved herself on Tapeta when leaving her first run a long way behind to be beaten just half a length at Newcastle. Poor Relation caught the eye in the latter stages of her Lingfield debut and is expected to step forward.

ATR VERDICT: Pride Eye kept The Spotlight Kid at bay to spring a 66/1 shock over C&D, although she isn't guaranteed to confirm her superiority. TIMELY AFFAIR made a race of it with a rapidly improving handicapper here and backed that performance up when going one better in a classified race. The runner-up struck over the weekend, while the fourth has won three times since, and William Knight's four-year-old is open to plenty more improvement. How's The Guvnor and Roaring Ralph must be considered too.

He's unexposed over the trip and in handicaps, and makes plenty of appeal. Long Handicap: Abstract 8 - 13

ATR VERDICT: FORGLEN was quite taking when scoring at Lingfield on Saturday and should go very well here under the penalty, assuming he copes with the quick turnaround. Hedonista reached the frame at Chelmsford and could trouble the selection if building on that performance, while Himself is better judged on his Newcastle win rather than a lacklustre effort at Wolverhampton over Christmas.

Top Tip: FORGLEN (2)

Watch out for: HEDONISTA (3)

ATR VERDICT: DUST COVER should take some stopping in this handicap. He really stepped up when reverting to the all-weather towards the end of last year, scoring narrowly here before going down by the narrowest of margins before Christmas. Still open to plenty of improvement, the four-year-old can get back to winning ways at the main expense of Jodhpur Blue and Brodie's Boy.

Top Tip: DUST COVER (7)

Watch out for: JODHPUR BLUE (1)

Long Handicap: Tilsworth Turf 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: Course scorer SHALAA ASKER did it well at Chelmsford last month and might have won by even further if the recipient of a cleaner run over a furlong out. He's in good enough form to suggest he can cope with a 3lb rise and Hollie Doyle's presence in the saddle is an obvious tick in his box. Others to note include Azucena and Stash The Cash.

Top Tip: SHALAA ASKER (5)

Watch out for: AZUCENA (3)
