ATR VERDICT: FOOTHOLD put in a career best when beaten just a head over a mile here earlier in the month. This drop in trip is likely to suit and he can go one better at the main expense of High Chieftain following his own close second at Wolverhampton. Evenepoel (first) and Allegrino (third) are closely matched based on their meeting at Chelmsford recently and are others to note.

Top Tip: FOOTHOLD (4)

Watch out for: HIGH CHIEFTAIN (5)

ATR VERDICT: Marinakis arguably sets the standard following his win in a similar event at Chelmsford 10 days ago. That said, a 5lb penalty could leave him vulnerable so preference is for WRIST ART. James Owen's gelding showed much more when third at Wolverhampton last week and that form gives him a big chance. Monks Mead is another likely to be in the mix.

Long Handicap: Blended Stealth 10 - 1

ATR VERDICT: HUIT REFLETS has reverted to chasing relatively late in life, but seems revitalised by the move and he romped home at Sedgefield on Boxing Day. A 6lb rise looks workable and he could be difficult to overhaul over this suitable longer trip. Fellow last-time-out winners Powerofjet and Marty Mcfly are other serious contenders and the latter is rated the biggest danger to the selection, with his stamina more proven.

Top Tip: HUIT REFLETS (6)

ATR VERDICT: HAVEAGOBEAU is the obvious one after successfully bouncing back to form in a handicap over C&D last week. This is an easier assignment and Jim Boyle's gelding is hard to oppose. Thundering Breeze is 0-15 so far, but she has gone well here before. Dropping into a classified stakes could be a good move where she is concerned, although Sunset In Paris is a three-time track-and-trip winner and could be a bigger danger if staging a revival.

ATR VERDICT: Several of these are old rivals and the betting could be a good source of clues. Captain Kinsella runs off 10lb below his last winning mark and is dangerous to rule out, while It's Showtime and Bluebells Boy have reasonable chances. However, SON OF ASTAR is the pick of Tony Carroll's pair and the mount of Rossa Ryan won't need to find much to stamp his authority under top weight.

ATR VERDICT: Hardstyle got off the mark with the minimum of fuss over C&D, but isn't being allowed to rest on his laurels and followed up at Wolverhampton on Monday night. He is a force to be reckoned with if turned out again, but UNCLE NADER is given the opportunity to avenge his Chelmsford defeat at the hands of Thanh Nam. Jack Jones' gelding is 6lb better off for just three-quarters of a length and cheekpieces could help prompt the necessary improvement. Keep Chilliconcarneigh in mind too.

ATR VERDICT: INCLUSIVE went some way to putting a disappointing handicap debut behind her when making the frame at Southwell. That career-best effort suggested this trip is what she wants for now and she is taken to get off the mark. There should also be races in Henriette Ronner judged on her Newcastle third, and Far Too Fizzy and Mister Moet are in the mix too. Ollie Sangster forked out 150,000gns for Buckland Belle and after showing little in three qualifying runs, she starts handicap life off an attractive mark.

ATR VERDICT: Those with racecourse experience do not inspire any confidence, so preference is for LUNA LUX. The daughter of Masked Marvel cost 50,000 euros and represents a yard that does well in bumpers. Similar comments apply to Broadway Dreamer and Nightflyer, who is related to winners on the Flat. Any market support for Bound For Glory or Teddie would have to be noted.

Top Tip: LUNA LUX (7)

Watch out for: NIGHTFLYER (5)

ATR VERDICT: Bell Shot dug deep to spring a 33/1 shock at Southwell and he now returns to his optimum trip. Metaverse has been threatening to get his head back in front, while Spirit Lead Me's winning run may have come to an end but he must not be written off. Noble Victory has been freshened up by a break but the vote goes to DIAMONDONTHEHILL, who only just failed to justify favouritism at Chelmsford and is able to compete here from the same rating.

ATR VERDICT: Only In Manila and New Bay Star have identical ratings so there should be little between them, although the latter is more likely to appreciate this test of stamina. Only In Manila's stable companion Cheshire Cat could leave his ordinary debut over a mile here behind him, but ROKER ROAR is preferred. Andrew Balding's colt took a pleasing step forward to finish fourth at Newcastle, despite meeting trouble close home, and he is bred to excel over middle distances.

ATR VERDICT: WAISTCOAT can usually be relied upon to run his race and arrives on the back of a clear-cut Chelmsford success, with Em Four only fifth. His penalty means he must run off a figure in the 70s for the first time in his career, but he may be open to even more improvement. State Of Madness invariably attracts market attention and has made great strides since joining Charlie Clover so should do so again. City Cyclone was just behind a subsequent winner when a close-up third over C&D and rounds out the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Appier had Bashful Boy two and a quarter lengths behind in third when he won over an extended 2m at Wolverhampton. However, the latter is 3lb better off and could turn things around. Even so, the well-handicapped EDUCATOR might be the answer. Open to improvement over this trip, the Henrietta Knight-trained seven-year-old is dangerous to underestimate, with the booking of Billy Loughnane a highly positive appointment.

ATR VERDICT: Towerlands was skilfully placed to register a hat-trick, although cracks appeared when he failed to justify favouritism over 7f at Newcastle most recently. Stepping back up to a mile can help but preference is still for HIGH ON HOPE, whose recent Chelmsford success advertised his battling qualities and he is only 1lb higher. Gilet and Billy Mill are other appealing options.

ATR VERDICT: FIGHT YOUR CORNER seemed well suited by stepping up to a mile at Southwell last month and could have plenty more to offer now he goes handicapping from a lenient opening mark. Port Road made the most of a drop in the ratings when he scored over C&D a fortnight ago and can cement his authority over the third-placed I Am Me, who has been nudged down 1lb and has each-way appeal.

ATR VERDICT: Woodstock City has to be respected following his short-head second at Lingfield earlier in the month. That said, marginal preference is for the unexposed SHRIMP SHADY, who bounced back to form when hitting the crossbar at the same venue. With the prospect of further improvement likely, Andrew Balding's colt can come out on top. Son Of Man and Ludo's Landing are the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Trust No One accounted for ONYEISI when winning at Newcastle and has to be respected as a result. The latter, who again filled the runner-up berth at Lingfield last weekend, is better off at the weights, though, and the application of a first-time visor may help him to reverse the form. The rest all have questions to answer, but Von Dutch is the pick of them on his handicap debut.
