ATR VERDICT: SAM'S HOPE benefited from being ridden much more patiently when scoring in fine style over C&D last week and she is 4lb well-in under a penalty. It seems likely the six-year-old will get a similar set-up on this occasion and she may prove a tough nut to crack. Thecoffeepoddotco has been knocking on the door in novice/maiden company and has to be of interest making her handicap debut. Others to note are Papa Don't Preach and Twilight Madness.

Top Tip: SAM'S HOPE (1)

ATR VERDICT: Pleasington returned to form when filling the runner-up spot in this grade at Newbury last time and was kindly dropped 1lb, so he is one to take seriously. Doyouknowwhatimean hit the woodwork at Uttoxeter and is likely to remain competitive, but it may pay to side with GENOIS. The veteran went in by just under two lengths in this class over track and trip on Boxing Day and if in similar form, he could be the one to beat.

ATR VERDICT: SANDITON's form has improved recently due to the application of headgear, with three placed efforts at Lingfield. Charlie Johnston's gelding now sports blinkers for the first time and this looks to be a decent opportunity to shed the maiden tag. Dream Illusion finished third over C&D at the start of the month and is respected along with Cill Mocheallog, who wasn't quite at his best at Lingfield last time.

ATR VERDICT: Operation Gimcrack went up 3lb for winning over C&D earlier in the month and is likely to play a leading role once again. Bomb Squad has been running well of late and his best recent effort came when beaten a nose here last month. The vote, though, goes to MOYOWASI. Ian Williams' charge won on his penultimate outing here and the application of first-time cheekpieces might yield further improvement.

ATR VERDICT: SHE IS FOR ME BOYS was disappointing when sent off favourite at Cheltenham last month having weakened quickly. A subsequent wind operation suggests the issue has been sorted and a repeat of her Kempton victory on chase debut in November can see her back to winning ways. Celestial Fashion didn't appear to stay 3m at Ayr last time so the drop back in trip can see her in a better light. Taxus Baccata appeals most of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Tony Carroll won the corresponding event in 2024 and a division of this 12 months ago, so AUTUMN ANGEL could be the answer. The mare went down by a narrow margin at this level two starts ago before running well in a handicap. There isn't a great amount of depth to this and a reproduction of either of those efforts might suffice. American Rose and Wrath Of Hector head the list of dangers.

ATR VERDICT: Wee Alki pulled up at Hexham last time and the seven-year-old, who had won at the same venue the time before, is entitled to bounce back to form. However, LA HIGUERA is still learning his trade but he has still posted a trio of solid efforts in handicaps. Toby Lawes' gelding is 2lb well-in following a Uttoxeter third on New Year's Eve, as the winner of that contest has scored twice since and runs in the second division, and any further improvement could allow him to break the maiden tag. Bollin Matilda is also noted.

The daughter of Advertise is able to compete in classified company once again and she can be rewarded this time. Both Royal Jet and Isla Bella look threatening and don't rule out Captain Pickles, who made an encouraging return from a brief break over C&D.

The form received a huge boost with her stable companion winning a Listed bumper at Market Rasen last week and this appears an excellent opportunity for her to get off the mark. Lady Boujee was second at Market Rasen and is capable of being in the mix along with Elated, who shaped better than the result suggests at Warwick.

ATR VERDICT: ALFRED SPERO found only a subsequent winner too strong over an extended 1m4f at Newcastle and compensation could be on the cards. Gemma Tutty's gelding has displayed enough speed to cope with this drop in distance and edges the vote over Night Bear. The veteran arrives on the back of a respectable fourth over C&D and continues to slide down the ratings. Silkies Sib is the pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: ALFRED SPERO (2)

Watch out for: NIGHT BEAR (5)

ATR VERDICT: Mr Juggles has offered enough in two outings here to suggest that he will be involved once more. A reproduction of his latest third over C&D may make him tough to beat, but there is every chance that SPACE MOON will eclipse him. Brian Ellison's filly caught the eye when reaching the frame on her debut at Newcastle and any improvement could see her collect. Grey Force and Kameko Fever are others of interest.

Top Tip: SPACE MOON (11)

Watch out for: MR JUGGLES (7)

ATR VERDICT: Having displayed the benefit of a wind procedure when finishing a close-up third over track and trip, ALBERT CEE could be poised to regain the winning thread. The six-year-old appeals off an unaltered mark and gets the nod over Profit Street, who has posted three creditable efforts in defeat since scoring at Wolverhampton. Thank The Lord and Initial Blue are others to note.

Top Tip: ALBERT CEE (1)
