ATR VERDICT: ROARING RALPH gained compensation for two runner-up efforts at this venue when landing the spoils over C&D last time out. The six-year-old scored with enough in hand to suggest that a 3lb higher mark is surmountable and he edges the vote over Samra Star. Linda Perratt's mare has been nudged up just 2lb for her recent Wolverhampton victory and another bold bid is forecast. Asian Journey is the pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: ROARING RALPH (7)

ATR VERDICT: Eagles Whistle proved a different proposition when winning on all three outings for Daragh Bourke and she's not easily dismissed reverting to handicap company on her stable debut. However, an official rating of 61 demands a career best from the six-year-old, which may leave the door open for MARRY THE NIGHT. Tim Easterby's inmate arrives on the back of a respectable fifth in a class 5 and these calmer waters may prove fruitful. No Knee Never is also worth a second look.

ATR VERDICT: BRECHIN CASTLE is returning from a long absence, but has a lot going for him. Ben Brookhouse trained him to win two bumpers in Britain, including in Listed class at Cheltenham. He was last seen finishing runner-up in another Listed bumper at Ascot in December 2023 and has switched to Willie Mullins for his hurdling debut. Bulgaden Castle has been placed in his last three hurdle races and has earned a mark of 115. He kept on in second at Thurles and Punchestown, which gives him a solid chance. Famous Figure is a bumper winner who could improve from an opening sixth over flights in Down Royal.

ATR VERDICT: With recent solid form thin on the ground, this could prove a suitable opportunity for SPIRIT OF BOWLAND to get back on the scoresheet. The veteran likely found a return to 7f on the sharp side when finishing fifth here recently and he makes plenty of appeal reverting to a mile. Consistency isn't Annalee Lass' forte, but she's capable at this level if things fall right. Peter Niven's mare is feared most, ahead of the reappearing Fifty Sent.

ATR VERDICT: Tactics will be key as recent winners STRAIGHT JOHN, Raise You Up and Tip Of The Wings all dictated in their respective races. Straight John encountered some smart types when sixth in a big field on debut at Leopardstown and then took the runner-up berth at Punchestown. He was a comfortable winner on his latest start at that track. Raise You Up is proven over further and was strong at the finish in delivering at Limerick and at this venue, so he's a major contender. Tip Of The Wings, a stablemate of the selection, has to give weight away but beat an odds-on favourite in Limerick. Dollar Nolimit was patiently ridden to score in Limerick and isn't out of it.

ATR VERDICT: It won't be long before HOMER STOKES wins a race of this nature if recent second-placed efforts both here and at Wolverhampton are anything to go by. Going up to 1m should help and the eight-year-old gets a confident vote. Dash Power had been in good form prior to a mediocre effort at Wolverhampton most recently and is noted along with Headshot.

ATR VERDICT: THE BIG CLOUD reverts to hurdles and has the ability to win this race. Shane Crawley's mare was successful over fences at this track in December before falling at Clonmel in January. She has a testing-ground victory over flights at Limerick in her locker. Cry Before Dawn ran well for a long way from the front in Clonmel last week before dropping to third, while Stiltellinemnuttin is a possible improver upon a fifth place here. Lissen To The Lady has been off for more than two years and starts out for a new stable, but she was successful when last seen in Clonmel and is worth a market check.

ATR VERDICT: KARAKULA DANCER is really progressive and won smoothly at Kempton last time to make it two from three this year. He remains unexposed on all-weather and over this trip and another bold showing looks assured. Crimson Rambler might have to settle for another supporting role and similar sentiments apply to Lexington Express, who showed improved form at Wolverhampton to take third.

ATR VERDICT: A winner in a similar grade at Clonmel last month, FENWAY PARK can follow up. Although that race was over an extended 2m, the Andrew McNamara-trained gelding has form over this longer trip and looks well treated at the weights. The son of Malinas is also proven on testing ground and appears to have plenty going for him. Rocky's Howya also comes into this race on the back of a win. Also successful in claiming company last time, the Declan Queally-trained 10-year-old is likely to attempt to make all. Noble Birth is best in on official ratings but will need to step up on recent form.

Spring Is Sprung won readily over track and trip and must be taken seriously, but a bigger danger is Azure Angel assuming she's ready to roll after a break.

ATR VERDICT: Having looked a smart prospect when making a winning debut at Newbury, THAT'S AMORE was far from disgraced when finishing fourth in last year's Cheshire Oaks. The four-year-old makes plenty of appeal in these calmer waters and is taken to make a winning return, at the main expense of Jupiter Ammon. Andrew Balding's gelding has some respectable handicap form to his name and a current rating of 82 suggests he shouldn't be far away. Laravie is most compelling of the others.

Top Tip: THAT'S AMORE (1)

Watch out for: JUPITER AMMON (4)

ATR VERDICT: A slow start didn't aid the cause of MAGNA when third over C&D at the start of last month and the four-year-old has every chance of getting back to winning ways, especially with her rider's 7lb allowance being in her favour. Amaysmont ran his best race for a while when runner-uo at Wolverhampton and is capable of being in the mix, while others to note are Man On A Mission and Alashos.

ATR VERDICT: Picture Palace is entitled to have benefited from his debut experience when filling the runner-up spot at Chelmsford last month. Despite that piece of form being the strongest on offer, it wouldn't be a surprise if one of the newcomers proved successful, with BIN BANNA getting the vote. From the family of QEII winner King Of Change, he commands plenty of respect for top connections. Conclave and Pentonville complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: I'M WORKIN ON IT bids for a hat-trick after taking a big step forward for the application of cheekpieces last month. Despite a 9lb rise for that success, it wouldn't be a surprise if the headgear brought further improvement. Miletus bounced back when second at Lingfield and is likely to enter calculations along with Advancing, who has been running with credit since winning at Wolverhampton in December, and Cavolo Nero.

ATR VERDICT: The hat-trick seeking Supreme King has to be respected but a 4lb rise for his narrow victory over C&D two weeks ago demands more from him. With that in mind, preference is for GALLANT, who was a close second off this mark at Chelmsford last time and that form gives him a big chance. Justcallmepete and Expert Agent are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Most of these have claims, but marginal preference is for BUCCABAY. The six-year-old won over C&D in December and has not been disgraced on either start since, including a close second here again last time. The recent Southwell victor Dyrholaey could prove to be the main threat to the selection, although City Cyclone and Hundred Caps are others with strong claims.

ATR VERDICT: SPARKSMITH has improved with every start to date and got off the mark in impressive style over 6f at Wolverhampton last month. On that evidence, an opening mark of 80 should be workable for James Ferguson's colt and he tops the shortlist. The Lost Sock has a similar profile to the selection and should not be underestimated on his return, while Alasrae and Augustus Gloop complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Jodhpur Blue arrives on the back of several creditable efforts in defeat and, off an unchanged mark, he's likely to be in the thick of the action once more. However, Ian Williams' charge may have to play second fiddle once more, with KURIOS LADY fancied to make a winning handicap bow. The daughter of Sergei Prokofiev has shaped as if she could improve for this step up in distance and an opening mark of 70 looks workable. Market support for stable debutant Rizal would be interesting.

ATR VERDICT: Although thwarted in her follow-up bid, ASHFORD HILL wasn't disgraced when finishing fourth at Lingfield last month. The five-year-old should appreciate a drop into classified company and a third career victory may beckon. Griselda arrives here with the highest official rating and she may appreciate a return to 7f. Henrietta Knight's filly is feared most, ahead of Rainbow Sign, who could prove dangerous if dictating the pace.
