ATR VERDICT: FALLS OF ACHARN has been found an ideal opportunity to gain a second victory over hurdles. Paul Nicholls' juvenile was outclassed in the Adonis at Kempton last time but this is a much easier task on paper. Sinchi Roca clearly wasn't right at Fontwell on his latest start and it wouldn't be a surprise if he bounced back, while Ettore needs to step forward from his hurdling debut effort at Newbury.

ATR VERDICT: SHADOWFAX OF ROHAN made a pleasing winning debut for the Patrick Neville yard at Catterick last month and wasn't disgraced when second and well clear of the rest under a penalty back there soon after. Still unexposed over fences, the six-year-old gets the vote. Classical Sting is open to progression in this sphere and is noted after a confidence-boosting second over hurdles here last time. Catchim is more a more wily chaser than Known Warrior and looks a better alternative.

ATR VERDICT: INDULTO ROUGE, the winner of a point-to-point before joining David Pipe, should find this easier than the Listed race he contested at Ascot in December. Having had a wind problem addressed since, the five-year-old can kick on. Tandy's Bridge showed promise on his sole start in Ireland and is dangerous to underestimate, despite running too freely to justify favouritism on debut for Tom Ellis at Warwick, while Scaredofnothing ran green at Wincanton but posted an encouraging enough debut effort to make the shortlist in this company.

Top Tip: INDULTO ROUGE (1)

Watch out for: TANDY'S BRIDGE (3)

Long Handicap: Honneur De Sivola 9 - 12

ATR VERDICT: JACK THE SAVAGE makes a good bit of appeal in here. He improved for the extra yardage when scoring narrowly at Hereford latest and connections have found their gelding another very winnable opening. Peckforton Hills is the main danger on the back of a couple of solid efforts at Sedgefield and Doncaster, while Big Bert could go well in a first-time tongue-tie.

Top Tip: JACK THE SAVAGE (5)

ATR VERDICT: Ede'iffs Rock got back to winning ways over C&D when making it back-to-back victories in that contest last month. However, a 10lb rise does appear to be on the harsh side, so preference is for WICKED THOUGHTS. A winner over C&D on his penultimate start, a line can be put through his subsequent effort at Exeter and he is only 2lb higher than that success. Gyenyame appears best of the remainder.

Top Tip: WICKED THOUGHTS (2)
Watch out for: EDE'IFFS ROCK (5)

ATR VERDICT: HILLBERRY HILL has a penalty to contend with here for his maiden hurdle success in Ireland, but he really improved for the step up to this trip that day at Thurles and is taken to go in again. The Flier Begley is hugely experienced over fences and is interesting pitched in here, while Sea Of Fortune is surely better than what he showed in a Chepstow bumper.

Top Tip: HILLBERRY HILL (1)

ATR VERDICT: PRAIRIE QUEEN showed a lot more at Hereford last time when third in a handicap hurdle and this could be the time to catch her off a light weight and switching to fences. Bobbi's Beauty couldn't land a blow at Warwick but would have every chance on her previous form at Lingfield and Leicester, while Ryder's Rock is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: Representing connections who love having winners at this track, ARTABAN is a debutant very much to take seriously and master handler Paul Nicholls could hardly have found him a better opening. Those with form don't set a very high standard as Crest of Arms finished seventh on debut at Wincanton before another mediocre display at Cheltenham, albeit that was in Listed company. Arms Park will need to improve on his third-placed effort here.

Top Tip: ARTABAN (2)
