ATR VERDICT: BAREFOOT BEACH's debut win probably came as something of a surprise given her SP of 25/1, but she was impressive in thumping a few decent rivals over C&D and is fancied to carry a penalty to further success. The race-fit Mehmas Engine looks the main threat given her likelihood to improve over this extra furlong. Yasalam appeals most of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Jimbo Sport and Snatch A Glance possess identical official ratings, although they must concede weight to the juvenile Scarlet Moon, who is rated 2lb superior and has kept good company. A wind operation could see Current Edition in a better light, but a chance is taken on the jumping of KING'S SCHOLAR. Olly Murphy's new recruit was rated as high as 86 when with Ed Walker on the level and he might prove too good if transferring that ability to this discipline.

ATR VERDICT: Each of these remain open to improvement but it looks best to stick with SOUTHERN WARRIOR, who took a leap forward to win on his handicap bow at Newcastle. The runner-up has gone one better since and, with that in mind, a 3lb rise might be lenient. Staniel Cay and Orange Emperor are both bred to be better than their opening marks so must be feared.

Long Handicap: Wishful Wings 10 - 1

ATR VERDICT: KIT'S COTY has seemed in the handicapper's grip since going in over 3m here back in the autumn, but she is back down to the same mark now and can take full advantage. Her stable companion A Little Something was let down by her jumping at Leicester, but that first run for nine months will sharpen her up. Annie Express drops in class and struck here towards the start of the year, while Lynsey Larue remains a maiden under Rules but showed more when runner-up at Warwick.

She and fellow three-year-old Art Gallery both enter handicaps from a potentially workable mark, but James Fanshawe's filly is preferred on this occasion. ATR VERDICT: JACKOMY has gradually got his act together and, well backed to build on a Taunton third, he gave favourite-backers few concerns when justifying the support at Wincanton. This comes just seven days on, but he now looks on a firm upward curve. Little Pi has been holding his form well but is much more experienced and, as such, lacks the scope for improvement of the selection. Oakley's Way's Plumpton second suggested his turn is near again.

Harry Fry's charge escapes a penalty having won a conditionals' event under Ciaran O'Shea at Kempton and with his partner now claiming the full 7lb allocation, he could be hard to beat. Hollie Doyle keeps the partnership intact and the decision to turn the son of Palace Pier out again swiftly can reap reward. Archangel Josepi and South Coast Star also occupied the runner-up berth on their most recent starts, although the latter was behind Archangel Josepi at Newcastle. There have to be some reservations on the back of that effort and, despite having a bit to find on official ratings, NORTHERN BOUND could be the answer. Wedonttelltetruth made a victorious handicap bow at Wolverhampton, but KINDLY QUEEN is fancied to do that this time. ATR VERDICT: SOVEREIGN SPELL was disqualified for his Windsor success in August and ran well on his nursery bow when placed at Doncaster the following month. Connections take advantage of the fact he can run in a maiden and he is expected to be tough to beat. Royal Poetry shaped well on her racecourse bow at Southwell and looks the most likely threat to the selection. Others to consider are Gris De Chine and Cosmic Jive.

Top Tip: SOVEREIGN SPELL (6)

Watch out for: ROYAL POETRY (9)

ATR VERDICT: AL DURRY has progressed with each start so far and returned from a break to score at the third time of asking at Southwell in October. The manner of that performance suggests an opening mark of 80 is workable and Owen Burrows' filly is likely to benefit from stepping up in trip. King's Hand raced keenly when fourth at Kempton and the drop in distance looks a positive, while Serious Look's success here at the start of the month gives him every chance.

Top Tip: AL DURRY (1)

Watch out for: KING'S HAND (9)
