ATR VERDICT: HEAD FOR HOME showed promise when runner-up to Pourquoi Poi in a 20-runner 2m4f handicap at Punchestown back in October and wasn't disgraced the following month at Tramore. He is without a run since, but the yard has been in better form of late and he's bred to appreciate this longer trip. Cozone impressed when beating Coppola by over seven lengths at Downpatrick a fortnight ago and may confirm that form on the revised terms. Others to consider include Duce Bigalow and the Cian Collins-trained pair Kellys Corner and Wakey Wakey Man.

Top Tip: HEAD FOR HOME (17)

ATR VERDICT: Suddenly I See got off the mark over 7f at this venue in September and is of interest on his handicap debut. Kameko Fever hit the woodwork at Newcastle and needs considering, but BLUES AND ROYALS might be the one. Michael Bell's charge took a step forward to make a winning handicap debut at Kempton, despite being left with plenty to do. Off just 3lb higher, he looks the one to beat.
