ATR VERDICT: JEHOL DE THAIX had Nosy Neighbour just under two lengths behind when recording his first career success at Newcastle and it's hard to see how that form will be overturned. With the Nicky Richards yard in fine fettle at present, he could prove very hard to beat. Jericoacoara was just touched off in a class 2 event at this venue and has to be respected, with the drop in grade aiding his cause.

Top Tip: JEHOL DE THAIX (4)
Watch out for: JERICOACOARA (2)

ATR VERDICT: Dalamara relished the step up in distance on her handicap debut to score at Newcastle in December, but she will need to prove as effective on turf. With that in mind, FICKLE MCSELFISH gets the vote. The son of Tasleet finished four lengths clear of the third when hitting the woodwork at Ripon last week and can cope with this quick turnaround to go one better. Worlington completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: FICKLE MCSELFISH (1)

ATR VERDICT: LOOKING SPLENDID bolted up on his chasing bow over track and trip earlier in the month and even a 9lb rise might prove to be on the lenient side. That was his first start back from a break and he could take another step forward to go in again. Special Rate was far from disgraced in third over 2m4f at Newcastle and should remain competitive off an unchanged mark. Joecooker is another to note.

Top Tip: LOOKING SPLENDID (7)

ATR VERDICT: Looks Fantastic may have benefited from setting a steady pace when outrunning odds of 20/1 to finish fourth at Southwell, but it was still a fair effort and he is one to watch. Tickets is a course winner to note, but PERFIDIA finished a creditable third over a mile at Thirsk earlier in the month and remains on an attractive rating.

ATR VERDICT: WOLFBURG hasn't looked back since his chase debut, enjoying a consistent spell with a couple of victories backed up with placed efforts. The seven-year-old is 11lb higher after a career-best effort at Carlisle last month, but has more upside than the majority of his rivals. Red Happy rattled off a hat-trick in early 2025 and could be of interest if ready to go after 13 months off. Dare To Shout and Hudson De Grugy complete the shortlist.

Long Handicap: Sea Legend 8 - 2

ATR VERDICT: Having posted some fine efforts in defeat in Dubai, a return to these calmer waters could see JOLLY ROGER secure a first triumph on turf. A 1lb ease in the ratings for the four-year-old's latest third at Meydan could prove to be lenient and his race fitness gives him an edge over the returning Double Parked. Tim Easterby's gelding ended his three-year-old campaign with a good third over C&D and he isn't taken lightly. Intrusively may fare best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: Struth was a smart handicapper on the Flat and his opening mark over hurdles may prove to be workable. However, the vote goes to GONNINO after his recent second over slightly further at Carlisle and Gary Rutherford's gelding has the potential to go one better. Big Love is entitled to step forward from his best run over timber so far, while The Best Way appears the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: It's difficult to get away from the 97-rated MR COLONEL, who was far from disgraced when finishing fifth in the Zetland on his final juvenile outing. The son of Frankel should take all the beating if returning in similar form and he can make the most of the 7lb he receives from main rival Bay Of Myths, who made a winning debut at Chelmsford last month and is open to improvement. According To Mark may claim the bronze medal.

ATR VERDICT: Having found only a rating-dropper too strong at Newcastle, Newport must enter calculations off an unaltered mark. However, the six-year-old may have to play second fiddle once more, with MS CINDY KATE looking feasibly treated on her handicap bow. Nicky Richards' mare finished a staying-on fourth at Carlisle and an opening figure of 87 could prove lenient. Rememberthename and Hunters Spring are others of interest.
