ATR VERDICT: SAVVY VICTORY hasn't won for a while, but he has been campaigned in Listed company and some hot handicaps. He wasn't beaten far off this mark when fourth at Newcastle on his final appearance of 2025 and should be cherry-ripe after occupying the same position in the Magnolia Stakes over Easter. Have Secret and Marhaba Ghaiyyath also have recent runs under their belts, while Insanity progressed well until struggling in the November Handicap and drying ground will be to his liking.

Top Tip: SAVVY VICTORY (3)

Watch out for: INSANITY (2)

ATR VERDICT: Yorkshire Glory has improved no less than 26lb since shedding his maiden tag in December and has recorded nine victories out of 12 starts in that time. He is now bidding to complete a seven-timer but the return to turf might find him out and, with that in mind, GREAT gets the nod. Sam England's gelding showed more when sixth at Thirsk earlier in the month and the booking of Oisin Orr is noteworthy. Diamont Katie is another to consider.

Top Tip: GREAT (6)

Watch out for: YORKSHIRE GLORY (3)

8 (3)		74-3	ANGEL SUMMER (IRE) 87 b f Dark Angel - Summer Sunday	3 9 - 1	Darragh Keenan C Allen	62

ATR VERDICT: WILD ROSIE showed little in her three appearances in maiden/novice company last year, but this represents her first outing for Chris Dwyer and the booking of Silvestre De Sousa on her handicap bow catches the eye. Space Bear has already been competitive off this mark and is one to be interested in, while Eighththreeone sprung a 20/1 surprise at Southwell earlier in the month and isn't ruled out either.

ATR VERDICT: Home And Dry certainly made Cieren Fallon earn his riding fee when having to be cajoled along at various stages to score over 2m at Chelmsford in October and he is one to watch. Charlie Darling outran odds of 66/1 when third at Southwell and might get involved, but LILLISTAR had Edwardtheninth back in fourth when filling the runner-up spot at Newcastle last month and can confirm that form to go one better.

ATR VERDICT: Rogue Allegiance appreciated the switch back to turf when going close at Leicester last week and commands plenty of respect before the handicapper is able to have his say. However, the claims of GRABAJABBA are difficult to ignore. Having made the frame on his most recent outings at Southwell and Doncaster, the five-year-old makes plenty of appeal off only 1lb higher. Candonomore and Miletus can fight it out for the minor honours.

Top Tip: GRABAJABBA (8)

ATR VERDICT: C&D winner Betweenthesticks got his head back in front at Wolverhampton on his return and is likely to be on the premises, but the vote goes to HIDDEN VERSE. The son of Dark Angel was doing his best work at the finish when sixth at Bath and with a handy draw in stall one, along with the booking of Rossa Ryan, he could record his third career success. Speeding Bullet completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: HIDDEN VERSE (9)

Long Handicap: Regal And Real 8 - 13, Poetic Grace 8 - 13, Lucky Sevens 8 - 13

ATR VERDICT: Plenty of these arrive with a lot to prove so a chance is taken on SHE'S CRAFTY. The daughter of Starman made a promising start for new connections when fourth at Leicester and the extra furlong appears likely to aid her cause. Lady Of Clover would have a chance if reproducing the form of her third at Wolverhampton two starts ago, while cheekpieces may bring some improvement from Lucky Sevens.

ATR VERDICT: Some C&D specialists do battle and MIDNIGHT CALL can register her sixth Wolverhampton success since November. Even in defeat during that period, Tony Carroll's speedster hasn't been far away and her latest triumph showed she is worth sticking with. Shalaa Asker is another reliable sprinter and was a few places ahead of Phoenix Beach when pipped here most recently. Cheekpieces don't need to prompt too much improvement from Binadham, while Em Four is holding his form well.

ATR VERDICT: BEAUNE proved his 40/1 victory at Lingfield to be no fluke with a pair of runner-up efforts before getting his head back in front over C&D. The son of Blue Point is tough to oppose in his current vein of form. Rubellite appears to be the most obvious threat after her second at Southwell. Wave Rock would be of interest if settling better than she did when last seen at Newcastle.

She benefited from a switch to front-running tactics when returning from a break here over 5f and a repeat of those may see her gain back-to-back successes. ATR VERDICT: FASTER BEE left behind a disappointing effort when beaten less than a length into fourth over C&D last month. The reapplication of cheekpieces might just give him the edge in what appears to be a winnable contest on paper. Thomas Equinas is likely to be competitive after his latest run at Southwell, while Port Hedland and Star Of Atlantis complete the shortlist.

Long Handicap: The Cutest 8 - 13, Street Dancer 8 - 13

ATR VERDICT: Street Dancer has only beaten two rivals home in her three career starts so far and was sent off at big prices for all of those efforts, but she could prove a completely different proposition now in handicap company. Even so, BAD HABITS looks the way to go. His sole victory came over C&D in December and despite disappointing when only ninth over track and trip last time, he could bounce back. Top Star is another to consider.

Top Tip: BAD HABITS (2)

Watch out for: STREET DANCER (9)

ATR VERDICT: First-time cheekpieces brought about significant improvement in KAARANAH when returning to winning ways over C&D earlier in the month. John Butler's eight-year-old only has a 4lb higher mark to contend with and could go in again. Karakula struck over track and trip in September and she has to be taken seriously along with Eagles Whistle, who is a C&D scorer herself.

Top Tip: KAARANAH (4)

Watch out for: KARAKULA (2)
