ATR VERDICT: Tom Desjy wasn't quite a spent force when parting company with Sean Bowen at Uttoxeter and the champion jockey keeps the faith. Even so, it would be foolish to allow HUCKLEBERRY STING to slip under the radar again because he took to fences like a duck to water at Bangor and is open to any amount of improvement. Delgany Deadline will appreciate the return to this sort of trip, and C&D winners Queens Wish and Cave Article can't be ruled out either.

Top Tip: HUCKLEBERRY STING (3)

Watch out for: TOM DESJY (7)

ATR VERDICT: Dunkerque dug deep to win a novice hurdle at Newcastle, although he started life on the level in Denmark so isn't guaranteed to take to the larger obstacles. In contrast, KARA SACRE is from the family of Sprinter Sacre so is expected to come into his own now presented with a fence. It's not ideal that he starts off on the back of a fall, but he was in command when coming down at Ffos Las and is sure to have been given plenty of schooling since. Seaview Rock is another newcomer to this discipline and can be forgiven his Newcastle no-show.

Top Tip: KARA SACRE (4)

ATR VERDICT: With recent solid form thin on the ground, this looks a suitable opportunity for last year's winner IRISH DANCER to get back on the scoresheet. The six-year-old arrives on the back of a respectable third at Southwell and returning to this track will suit. Golden Prosperity scored here three outings ago and rates the biggest danger, ahead of Siviez, who continues to slide down the ratings.

Top Tip: IRISH DANCER (1)

ATR VERDICT: Getmyfriend offered enough encouragement on her opening third at Plumpton to suggest that she can make a mark at this level. However, the form of CRYSTALATE's debut fourth at Ludlow has a strong look to it and there is every chance that the four-year-old can make a winning stable bow for Olly Murphy. Newcomer Golden Bouquet requires a market check for top connections.

ATR VERDICT: LHEUR DE GLOIRE wasn't without promise on his sixth-placed handicap bow over 2m5f at Haydock and a subsequent wind procedure could unlock significant improvement. The five-year-old travelled well into the race that day and this drop back in trip is forecast to suit. Although Miss Kassiope was undone by a 7lb penalty at Ffos Las, she cannot be dismissed at this level, while Liberty Looming is worth a market check on his return for Adam Nicol.

ATR VERDICT: Paddy Twomey has saddled six winners from his last seven runners at the time of writing and his newcomer JOGA BONITO merits plenty of respect. He's a half-brother to a heritage handicap winner who also landed two valuable handicaps in Meydan. Lan De Ghaire banked good experience when finishing third on debut over 6f at the Curragh and, based on that, this extra furlong should suit her well. Jim Bolger certainly knows what is required to land this race having won two of the last four renewals. Seven Nation Army looks the pick of Joseph O'Brien's pair on jockey bookings, but a good run from both him and Dancing Destiny is eminently feasible.

Top Tip: JOGA BONITO (4)

ATR VERDICT: First-reserve Jasmine Affanalis would be of interest if getting in as she was denied a clear run before finishing a fair fifth in a big field at Cork. This isn't a deep race and KITTY BEAR, who was successful on her penultimate start at Gowran Park, has strong claims. She is a consistent sort who is the highest-rated in the field and Orla Tynan gets on well with her. The veteran Brains finished well for a never-nearer fourth at Leopardstown and is on a dangerous mark. He certainly knows where the winning post is with 14 victories in his locker. Manhattan Dandy and Mullacash Buzz, who sports first-time blinkers, have chances at the lower end of the handicap.

ATR VERDICT: COLUMBUS is a smart recruit from the Flat and gets the vote to make a successful transition to hurdles for new connections. The son of Oasis Dream won three times in France and was Group 1-placed on his penultimate start over 1m4f at Cologne. Master Haku had Midnight Jet 13 lengths behind when the pair filled the placings behind Grey Jude at Cork last November and the pair both got off the mark over timber last month, with Midnight Jet showing improved form when scoring over this trip at Fairyhouse. Mr Hollywood is another useful recruit from the Flat in France for the Willie Mullins team.

Top Tip: COLUMBUS (5)

Watch out for: MIDNIGHT JET (3)

ATR VERDICT: Plenty in with chances in a tight handicap. SUN SOLDIER cashed plenty of cheques last year and made a pleasing return to action when beaten just over a length at the Curragh last month. That was his first start back from a break and it would be no surprise to see him take a step forward from that effort. Zarahmando has acquitted himself well in higher grades since delivering at Cork last autumn, while Gloriously Glam outran her odds when fourth in a warm fillies' handicap at Gowran Park in April. Fast Tara and Chester Nimitz, who made up a lot of ground for fifth at Leopardstown, will have their supporters.

ATR VERDICT: After creditable efforts in Group races on his final two starts as a juvenile, Irish Derby entrant NIL BUA GAN DUA was handed a rating of 101. The American Pharoah colt ran nowhere near that mark when third in a 1m maiden at Cork on his return to action last month and now steps up in trip. With that run under his belt, Joseph O'Brien's charge is chosen to get his head in front for the first time. Sir Benji overcame greenness to make a winning start at Navan and that form has been boosted recently. He looks the main threat to the selection, and Gowran Park maiden winner Rebel Ascendant is another who has to come into calculations.

Top Tip: NIL BUA GAN DUA (6)

Watch out for: SIR BENJI (3)
