ATR VERDICT: Binhareer is bound to be popular having won over C&D on his final start last year. That said, following recent wind surgery, POCKLINGTON could be a more rewarding option. The Geoff Oldroyd-trained entire has a touch of class and this could be a good starting point for his turf campaign. Pilgrim, Strike Red and Sondad are just a trio of many others with each-way credentials in a wide-open event.

Top Tip: POCKLINGTON (2)

ATR VERDICT: AMERICAN AFFAIR progressed through the handicap ranks before springing something of a shock to land the King Charles III at Royal Ascot last season, and Jim Goldie's speedster might be worth chancing on his seasonal reappearance. Time For Sandals made a satisfactory return in the Abernant last month and can be expected to have a big say, along with Haydock Sprint Cup one-two Big Mojo and Kind Of Blue. Aramram is still on an upward curve and might also be thereabouts.

ATR VERDICT: The Gosdens won this two years on the spin with Emily Upjohn in 2022 and Soul Sister in 2023, and their representative LEGACY LINK can enhance that record. The dual-Oaks entrant was last seen finishing fourth in the Fillies' Mile at Newmarket but looks sure to progress over middle-distances this term. The likes of Felicitas, Sea The Storm and Moments Of Joy are others likely to find real improvement this year, but the Gosdens' filly could have too much if returning at her best.

ATR VERDICT: This isn't as deep as the Ludlow contest in which POTTERS PARTY bolted up in three weeks ago and he is expected to take all the beating. The main threat might come from Phantoms Cave, who was by no means disgraced behind an easy winner at Kelso last month. Deerstalker arrives following a brace of victories between the flags and is most appealing of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: NOBLE GUEST is a dual C&D winner that hinted at a revival back here last month. The four-year-old's affinity with this venue is an appealing attribute and another bold showing can be expected. Berry Clever has gone close here before and reverts to turf with a solid each-way chance in this company. The low-mileage Potomac River has undergone wind surgery since he was last seen and warrants close inspection, while Beagle Bay could also be a player on his handicap debut.

ATR VERDICT: DUBLINOFFICECALLIN took a big step forward when scoring on his handicap debut over C&D a few weeks ago. A 5lb rise for that success may underestimate the five-year-old and he's hard to oppose as a result. Byron Hill made the frame at Sedgefield last time and is likely to be in the mix once again, while Gonnino is next best.

ATR VERDICT: NEPTUNE LEGEND is competitively weighted for his second spell with Tony Carroll and, as a previous course winner, he looks worth chancing on these terms. Darkened Edge also has winning form here and must be taken seriously, while the selection's stable companion, Wedgewood, has been in good form on the all-weather and can also have a say if she handles reverting to turf. Up The Anti completes a strong hand for the same yard.

Off the same mark, it would be no surprise to see the five-year-old finally go one better. Knockeranna Rose also hit the crossbar last time and should not be underestimated. Others to note are Beat The Retreat and Malangen.

ATR VERDICT: El Lambo and Martha Brown were well held in their previous starts and the newcomers hold more intrigue. Time Saxon Warrior represents a yard that have already struck with a juvenile this season and is high on the shortlist. Preference, however, is for TRIBAL APPEARANCE, who is bred to be speedy and this could be a good starting point. Romeo Guest ticks the right boxes on paper and support in the betting would be persuasive.

ATR VERDICT: DARZAH, who cost 375,000gns as a yearling, made a promising debut when fifth behind a potentially useful filly at Newmarket last month. The daughter of Dubawi can be expected to be wiser and gets the vote based on potential. The progressive Vitality rates a serious danger on the back of a good second at Epsom, while the four-year-old Mobberley Rose commands respect after her belated winning debut at Wolverhampton.

ATR VERDICT: QUILT was comfortably held in her three qualifying runs but it could be a different story now sent handicapping. The daughter of Ardad might do better over further in time but she will at the very least appreciate a switch to turf, and an opening mark of 68 looks fair. Fizzy Bear is another that could improve for the switch to handicaps, whilst Just A Gambler might find some progress in first-time blinkers.

ATR VERDICT: Virtual Hug picked up well to score over C&D recently and is respected under his 4lb penalty, but it is difficult to look past MOON OVER THE SEA. Tony Carroll's charge defeated the reopposing Endofastorm (second) over track and trip before following up at Windsor. He gets on well with Myla Coppins, and the 4lb penalty is unlikely to prevent another serious challenge.

Long Handicap: Favourite Friend 8 - 13

ATR VERDICT: KAKIRRA made a mockery of his opening mark at Wolverhampton last week and is fancied to go in again under a 6lb penalty. The son of Australia should have no issues with a switch to turf and can prove too strong for Atalanta Mist, who shaped as if ready for a step up in trip when third over a mile here a fortnight ago. Lucky Sevens is most appealing of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Man Is King made most of the running to score over a mile here last time and is likely to remain competitive under a 4lb penalty, but BAYNOONA gets the nod. Sue Gardner's charge was no match for an in-form rival here a fortnight ago but returning to further should be of benefit, and compensation could await her from an unchanged mark. Galactic Glow should be happier back on the grass and cannot be underestimated.
