ATR VERDICT: It's hard to get away from MATTEO, who made a deep impression when making a winning debut over C&D. The son of Coulsty could have any amount of improvement to come and can go in again. Arapaho Gold beat a subsequent winner by over two lengths at Thirsk and has to be considered along with Big Cigar, who struck at the first time of asking at Newcastle.

Top Tip: MATTEO (5)

Watch out for: ARAPAHO GOLD (4)

3 (3)		8-2	WHO'S LOPE 16 ch g Lope De Vega - Who's Steph	3 8 - 13	P J McDonald A M Balding	-

ATR VERDICT: Hamadhan was allotted a mark of 83 after making the switch to Jennie Candlish, although he's yet to prove competitive in two handicap starts so far. He could do better now eased into novice company, but URCHIN still holds all the aces. Karl Burke's charge built on a promising debut effort when upped in trip at Ripon and he should prove very difficult to beat. Who's Lope can chase the pair home.

Top Tip: URCHIN (2)

Watch out for: HAMADHAN (1)

ATR VERDICT: CAPITAL GUARANTEE probably isn't one to rely heavily upon, but he might still be worth chancing in what looks an open event. A narrow C&D defeat is sandwiched in between two lacklustre efforts this term but perhaps he will do better back over track and trip, especially given his handy berth. Frankies Dream merits respect having stepped forward from a below-par seasonal return. Others to note include Billyb, Physique and Bell Shot.

Top Tip: CAPITAL GUARANTEE (8)

ATR VERDICT: Although EVOCATIVE SPARK might not be the force of old, he has hit a real purple patch this season, winning three times at this venue already. The latest came over C&D and the son of Frankel still has a bit in hand based on past exploits so further success may well await. Good Earth merits respect following a cosy Haydock victory, while Carlisle third Wen Moon appeals most of the remainder.
