ATR VERDICT: It is hard to oppose VOCITO, who had 18 lengths in hand over his nearest rival when scoring off this mark over hurdles at Uttoxeter nine days ago. The return to fences should not be a problem for Olly Murphy's gelding and he could outclass his rivals once again. The unexposed Seaview Rock edges out Pep Talking to be next best.

ATR VERDICT: CEOLWULF accounted for a subsequent winner when scoring over 2m4f at Newcastle when last seen in March. On that evidence, the veteran could be hard to beat once again off just 4lb higher. The rest all have questions to answer right now, but Traveling Soldier is back on his last winning mark and could be the pick of them ahead of Henry Box Brown.

ATR VERDICT: FOR HER GLORY created a big impression when winning over C&D on her racecourse bow a few weeks ago and Olly Murphy's filly can defy a 7lb penalty to maintain her unbeaten record. Muscadet is entitled to improve for his debut experience at Warwick and may be the main threat to the selection, although Moi Mon Vieux should not be underestimated.

ATR VERDICT: Hawk's Rock is of obvious interest in here given his connections and a breakthrough success would come as no surprise. Katarcice has had a couple of attempts over hurdles and shaped with enough promise to suggest he'll be thereabouts, but WAY MAKER is a dual bumper winner and is expected to step up markedly on what he showed first time out over timber at Perth.

ATR VERDICT: The form of Egotistical's breakthrough victory at Redcar in April appears solid and an official rating of 71 shouldn't prevent another bold showing on her handicap bow. However, ZARINCA was a shade more impressive when opening her account at Southwell in April and she may prove to be slightly better treated. Fellow in-form rivals D Flawless and Diamont Katie are sure to have their supporters too.

ATR VERDICT: JAFIMGOSO is going to take all of the beating. Dan Skelton's charge improved markedly for going back up in trip when scoring at Ludlow and the step up to 3m can ensure he remains a step ahead of the assessor. Jager Time held his form well last autumn and returned at Fontwell recently with a decent showing for fourth. He heads the list of dangers, while Larkfield Lusive has place prospects.

ATR VERDICT: The Cookstown Cafu justified strong support when scoring over a mile at Newcastle in April and merits respect on his follow-up bid. That said, the son of Invincible Spirit is far from certain to stay this extra quarter-mile distance, which could leave the door open for DISTINCTION. The eight-year-old scored over C&D last June and his latest third at this venue suggests that he could be poised to strike. The lightly-raced Finlaggan is a feasible alternative.

ATR VERDICT: The hat-trick seeking Captain Cool must enter calculations after chase triumphs at Stratford and Plumpton. The six-year-old appears nicely treated reverting to timber and isn't taken lightly, but SQUEEZEBOX is slightly more appealing in this discipline. Tom Lacey's charge ended last year's campaign with a dominant victory in a novice hurdle at Fakenham and a mark of 111 looks workable. Scottish Anthem is the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: QUANTUM POWER didn't appear to see out 6f on his latest third at Newmarket and a drop in distance may prove just the tonic. Tom Clover's gelding only gave way inside the final furlong that day and he looks more than capable of landing a race of this nature. Queen Sana has filled the runner-up spot on her last two outings and another bold bid is forecast, while Liverpool Star shouldn't be underestimated sporting first-time cheekpieces.

Dan Skelton's mare is reverting to timber off the same mark and she is sure to take all of the beating if seeing out the longer trip. This Sway arrives on the back of a good second at Ffos Las and he may serve the most resistance to the selection, ahead of Ghost Jury.

He's won his last two starts in better races on turf at Catterick and, assuming he'll transfer that good recent form to the all-weather, the five-year-old ought to take some stopping. Sorted was a short-head second over C&D two starts ago and has to be noted, while Knightmare is another with valid form claims.

ATR VERDICT: The unexposed ZOULETTE put in a career best when a length second over 7f at Leicester a week ago and Ollie Sangster's filly merits plenty of respect off 11lb lower on this occasion. Amazing Anita also hit the crossbar on her most recent outing and is likely to be in the mix once again. The shortlist is completed by Thehunnebellegacy and City Of Dreams.

Top Tip: ZOULETTE (7)

ATR VERDICT: Although unable to follow up when fifth at Catterick recently, MUSICAL SOLDIER makes plenty of appeal reverting to the scene of his sole victory. The majority of his rivals have something to prove at present and he could be ready to double his tally. Power Of Chora posted a respectable sixth on her reappearance at Nottingham in April and any improvement should see her in the mix, while Based should appreciate a return to the all-weather.

Top Tip: MUSICAL SOLDIER (4)

Long Handicap: Cherry Hill 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: Having secured a second career victory at Leicester, Study Up merits respect in his bid to complete a double. That said, the five-year-old didn't win by far and a 5lb penalty could be enough to anchor him, with SILKIES SIB taken to capitalise. James Owen's inmate arrives on the back of a C&D third and a 1lb ease in the ratings can only help. Beachborough Girl is also of interest reverting to the all-weather.

Top Tip: SILKIES SIB (6)

Watch out for: STUDY UP (1)
