ATR VERDICT: TRUE CHARM displayed plenty of promise when filling second place on his debut at Windsor 11 days ago and the son of Ardad could be hard to beat with the benefit of that experience. Menhaal failed to live up to market expectations on his first outing but it is far too soon to be writing him off, while Tumishi and Primal are the pick of the newcomers.

Long Handicap: Ferando 10 - 0, Bee's Kiss 9 - 8

ATR VERDICT: Focusing on DARING PLAN and Black Occ is recommended but is not without peril. The latter has been placed in two of his three starts over fences and can be forgiven when he was pulled up after a bad mistake at Bangor on his penultimate outing. If his jumping holds together, he can be a big player. However, the former is a shade more consistent and stepping back up in trip can draw improvement. Kenzo Des Bruyeres is suggested as the pick of the rest in a weak event.

Top Tip: DARING PLAN (6)

Watch out for: BLACK OCC (4)

ATR VERDICT: JENA D'OUDAIRIES had plenty in hand when racking up a double in a similar event at Stratford a couple of weeks ago and a 6lb rise may not be enough to stop her from making it a hat-trick. Miss Goldfire scored at Fontwell two starts ago and was still going well when unseating her rider at the same venue recently. On that evidence, she could be the main threat, although Just A Memory should not be discounted.

Top Tip: JENA D'OUDAIRIES (3)

ATR VERDICT: A MAJOR PAYNE looks the obvious place to start and he should go very close on the evidence of his last couple of seconds at Yarmouth and Newmarket. He's improved for going up to this distance and Oisin Murphy can get this gelding over the line for a breakthrough success. No Knee Never and Kasgani are the ones expected to put up the most resistance.

ATR VERDICT: AMERICAN LAND was unfortunate to bump into a very well-handicapped rival, who has won again since, when second at Chepstow last time. Off the same mark, it would be no surprise to see Joe Tizzard's gelding go one better. Arctic Voyage has to be respected following two impressive wins in novice/maiden hurdles. All of the remainder have claims, but Morning Mayhem is the pick of them.

ATR VERDICT: For whatever reason, GATEHOUSE wasn't at the races at Newmarket last time out but can be given another chance on the evidence of his determined wins at Chelmsford and Southwell previously. He broke through over this trip so there aren't any stamina concerns, and he's taken to get the better of Ripon winner Mudita and Beverley scorer Barbury Boy, who may appreciate the drop back to 1m2f.

ATR VERDICT: WESTERTON shaped with much more promise when second at Warwick a fortnight ago and has been found a really good opening to build on that improved display. Lord Cauvelliere was only beaten five lengths into fourth at Ludlow and commands attention on that evidence, while you can also make a solid case for past C&D winner Cogital and Jukebox Annie.

ATR VERDICT: RUN THIS WAY can complete her hat-trick in the finale. A winner at Redcar two starts ago, she readily cleared away from her rivals when doubling up at Thirsk and it's going to take a big performance to deny her another victory while she's evidently on good terms with herself. Hint Of The Jungle heads the list of dangers from Ishe Worth Agamble.

Roccana Rose sports a hood and tongue-tie on her introduction and is interesting getting weight from the selection, as is Megatothemax, who is owned and trained by Nick Scholfield.

7 (3)			TO INFINITY (FR) b c Wootton Bassett - Miss Infinity	2 9 - 7	Dylan Browne McMonagle J P O'Brien	-

ATR VERDICT: Riding arrangements suggest GIANT SEQUOIA is the pick of Aidan O'Brien's two runners and the Frankel colt makes plenty of appeal on pedigree being out of Listed scorer Pink Dogwood who is a sister to Irish Derby winner Latrobe. The other Ballydoyle runner, Aix La Chapelle, also has a smart page being by Justify and out of a Pivotal mare that has already produced Group 1 winners Henri Matisse and Tenebrism. To Infinity cost 360,000 guineas as a yearling and the Wootton Bassett colt is a half-brother to the smart Make Me King, while Bull Shark has been placed on all three starts and had Selwyn behind when third to the exciting Confucius at Naas.

The daughter of Sioux Nation could reward support for a yard with a healthy strike-rate at this venue. Fantasy Force is second on the list after an encouraging debut at York three weeks ago, while Social Symbol is another well-bred newcomer to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Raft Up was only beaten a length into fourth when on a hat-trick at Carlisle last time and is very much respected in his present mood. C&D scorer FORTAMOUR could be the way to go, though, as he showed much more when narrowly denied over track and trip last month. Beattie Is Back and Cairdeas are others to bear in mind.

Top Tip: FORTAMOUR (2)

Watch out for: RAFT UP (10)

ATR VERDICT: This is a competitive handicap and only a tentative vote is for WEN MOON, who won at Musselburgh towards the end of last season and improved on his comeback spin here when posting a solid third at Carlisle. A past C&D scorer, he edges it ahead of Canaria Queen, who is a consistent type and also brings winning track-and-trip form to the table. Rock Of England is next best.

Top Tip: WEN MOON (1)

Watch out for: CANARIA QUEEN (7)

ATR VERDICT: Karakula Dancer rarely runs a bad race and should be bang there at the business end, likewise Paroda Diva, who won well at Haydock and may have even more to offer over this trip. ZIGGY'S AVENGER gets the nod, though, as he finished in front of Karakula Dancer when third on his handicap debut at Kempton and, on that evidence, it won't be long before he breaks through.

Top Tip: ZIGGY'S AVENGER (1)
Watch out for: PARODA DIVA (3)

Long Handicap: Bahtiyar 9 - 12

ATR VERDICT: Having returned to form with a good second over C&D last month, THEONLYWAYISWESSEX could be poised to strike. The eight-year-old is entitled to improve for that seasonal debut and he makes plenty of appeal racing off an unaltered mark. Royal Deeside has posted a string of creditable efforts in defeat of late and he should give his running once more, while Zestful Hope competes off a workable rating.

Top Tip: THEONLYWAYISWESSEX (2)
