ATR VERDICT: SEA MIRAGE improved on his debut sixth when second at Leicester last month and any further progression could see Kevin Ryan's colt get off the mark. That said, Cheeky Chesca has been knocking hard on the door of late and she should not be underestimated, while any market support for Sunset Cove on her racecourse bow would have to be noted.

ATR VERDICT: DIVISION DAY won on the Flat at Doncaster recently so comes here with confidence high bidding to go one better than his last couple of hurdling starts. Brian Ellison's charge looks well up to winning a maiden like this and can strike at the chief expense of Delgany Second Now, who is taken to improve on his bumper fifth at Plumpton now tackling timber. Throw Rogue Impact into the mix as well.

ATR VERDICT: OUR GUIDE can continue on an upward curve. He probably didn't beat much at Stratford but it takes a nice horse to win in novice company under a penalty and, switching to handicaps for this assignment, the progressive five-year-old doesn't look harshly treated off 118. The market may tell us more about Sure Touch, who hasn't been seen since October but did win well that day over fences at Market Rasen. Paddy De Pole is interesting, despite also having an absence to overcome.

ATR VERDICT: Four of the eight lining up were successful last time out, while Pop Star won on his penultimate outing, so this is competitive for the grade but preference is for STIRRUP CUP. Tim Easterby's charge has often been seen to best effect with a bit of give in the ground, evidenced again at Carlisle, but he crucially escapes a penalty for that apprentice handicap triumph. Annie Edson Taylor and Iris Dancer head the immediate dangers.

ATR VERDICT: ROYSSE looked to be on really good terms with himself when winning at Bangor last month and a press of the repeat button may well suffice, with both trip and ground very much in his favour. Ez Tiger is no stranger to winning here and was in good form at Plumpton last autumn. He can go well if ready to roll after an absence, with Arnie Moon another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Porth Eilian made all to land a three-runner C&D handicap and is likely to prove extremely popular, but a chance can be taken on GEO. A narrow victor at Ayr two starts ago, she ran with credit at Thirsk next time and might be capable of better at this lower level. Epidavros hasn't won for a while, but has been thereabouts on three of her four appearances in 2026.

ATR VERDICT: LATIN hasn't troubled the judge in two starts over timber this year, but he has made great strides on the all-weather and could be well treated off a mark of 100 on this handicap hurdle bow. Recent C&D winner Crown Of India still has a fighting chance from 4lb higher, and the in-form Genbu might also have a big say.

ATR VERDICT: REGULUS BLACK gets in here at the foot of the weights and is fancied to confirm the promise of his Chepstow victory. Unexposed over middle-distances, the extra furlong should suit judged on how strongly he finished off his race a few weeks ago. There should be more to come and he gets the nod ahead of Uncle Liam and Stepanov.

ATR VERDICT: PAST PASSION was no match for a useful winner at Ascot on her latest start, but there isn't anything of that calibre lining up here and she looks well placed to go one better. Tango Hotel didn't run badly in a Musselburgh seller and she could do better in first-time cheekpieces, although Cavan Lady might still be the bigger threat.

ATR VERDICT: RED MOON got the hang of things late on to make a winning handicap debut at Salisbury on Sunday and can go in again given that he escapes a penalty. Phantom Shadow hasn't quite seen out the mile at Bath the last twice so may do better over this marginally shorter trip, while Thai Princess and Katie's Song are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: FACTUAL failed to fire at Carlisle last time, but the three-year-old had been a promising fourth in a competitive event at Chester prior to that. On that evidence, Andrew Balding's colt can be given another chance. Huscal may improve with first-time cheekpieces added and should not be underestimated as a result, while Sunny Smile and Dagger Strike are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: PAY ATTENTION took a big step forward when filling second place at Newbury last time and the four-year-old makes plenty of appeal off just a 1lb higher mark. Quick Turn also hit the crossbar on his most recent outing and could prove to be the main threat to the selection, although Alice's Influence and Rosemary's Rose should not be discounted.

ATR VERDICT: Things didn't go to plan for ZIATA when she made her handicap debut at Nottingham and Ed Walker's filly is starting to look a bit exposed. However, one more chance is given now she steps up to 1m2f for the first time, reverts to maiden company and is tried in blinkers. Poor Relation is expected to be thereabouts on the pick of her form, and Lady Magu won't be far away either.

ATR VERDICT: ZOOTER showed a bit more when going up to this trip for the first time at Leicester and is worth another chance on that basis. This isn't a strong race and Jack Jones' charge ought to go very close to a breakthrough success. Liveinthelight shaped with enough promise at Kempton two starts ago to make her of interest on her handicap bow, while Grand Pier rates best of the rest.

Top Tip: ZOOTER (1)
