ATR VERDICT: Aidan O'Brien bids for a fourth victory in this contest with SUN GODDESS, who made a promising start to her career at Naas before quickening clear in the manner of a very smart performer when stepped up to 6f at the Curragh. On that evidence, she may prove a tough nut to crack. There are a whole host of unexposed fillies in opposition headed by Silent Beauty, who cost a million euros and ran out a four-length winner on her debut at Yarmouth. Light Of Dawn represents Karl Burke, who won this contest last year with Venetian Sun, and she is respected following her Carlisle victory along with Dark Issue, who was impressive at Goodwood, and Libertango.

ATR VERDICT: The unexposed CASE STUDY put in a career best when second over a mile at Lingfield earlier in the month. With further improvement likely, the daughter of Showcasing can defy a 1lb higher mark on this occasion. Twilight Dawn was third over C&D a month ago and has to be of interest as a result. Hey Havana and Harswell River complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: With six victories to her name since late May, BEORMA boasts a progressive profile. Dan Skelton's mare is 10lb well-in and will take all of the beating if her recent exertions haven't caught up with her. Fakenham winner Hello Sweety is likely to set the pace and she should ensure a good gallop. A 3lb rise in the ratings shouldn't prevent the five-year-old from getting involved again, while Miss Friday Lions is the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Having made a winning stable bow at Stratford, Gateau De Miel is likely to prove popular in his follow-up bid. The veteran cannot be dismissed off 7lb higher in the ratings, but he does have more on his plate stepping up in class. With that in mind, it could be worth chancing GENOIS, who should prove tough to beat if reproducing his penultimate effort when runner-up at Haydock. Bhaloo is the pick of the remainder.

Long Handicap: Earlofbrackenstown 10 - 1, Bargain Hunter 10 - 0

ATR VERDICT: It's difficult to look beyond recent C&D winner BUNKER BAY, who escapes a penalty and is 7lb well-in. The seven-year-old arrives at the top of his game over hurdles and a hat-trick may be on the horizon. Tuba has been in fine form across both codes of late and an 8lb rise for his latest victory at Fakenham looks workable. The Fergal O'Brien-trained gelding might give the selection most to think about, ahead of Onehundredneighty.

Top Tip: BUNKER BAY (7)
