ATR VERDICT: MINZELLE was a beaten favourite when third on her racecourse bow at Haydock behind Sea Venture, who wasn't disgraced in the Chesham at Royal Ascot, and the drop to 5f appears to be the right move for Karl Burke's filly. Roots In Touche has to be respected based on her second in the Hilary Needler at Beverley, while Calef and Miss Tuite appeal most of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: LADY DUBLIN ran with plenty of credit on her first attempt at 6f when beaten less than two lengths into sixth in a competitive seller at York. The extra furlong may well yield further improvement and that can help her to shed the maiden tag at the fourth time of asking. Bluestone Lady was tried in blinkers at Carlisle last week and stayed on nicely to finish fourth. She is another who can benefit from stepping up in trip, with Liveadream completing the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Wen Moon has been knocking on the door with placed efforts at Carlisle and Ripon and is expected to be competitive once again off the same mark. Tees Aggregates' recent form has also been fairly consistent, but the unexposed POLKA appears the one to side with. Julie Camacho's filly caused a surprise when scoring as the outsider of the field at Newcastle in February and an opening figure of 69 looks very workable.

ATR VERDICT: A repeat of Carolus Magnus' second over C&D in April would give him an obvious chance and he could easily bounce back from a below-par effort at Carlisle. Viviana is likely to improve making her first appearance in handicap company after running over shorter on all three outings to date. That being said, FINN IRONSIDE was unlucky more than once at Doncaster last time and the five-year-old, who had been running well prior, can make amends to gain a fourth career success.

ATR VERDICT: Rivera Queen wasn't at all disgraced on her first start in a handicap when fourth at Brighton and is likely to step forward from that display. Long Shot drops back to 6f following a brace of solid efforts at Redcar, but this might be the time to catch BATTENBURG BELLE. After three seconds, the booking of Cieren Fallon might just help to make the difference required to see her get off the mark.

Long Handicap: Star Of Markinch 8 - 3

ATR VERDICT: Naturalia has found one too good in each of her last two outings at Carlisle and may fill that place again, this time behind GEMINI MAN. Iain Jardine's gelding struck in a classified stakes at Newcastle and a repeat of that performance might be enough. Rosemary May showed more when third at Ripon last week and isn't ruled out either.

With Clifford Lee booked, the daughter of Inns Of Court could overturn that form to strike. Velvet Rhythm has gone off the boil slightly since completing a double at the chief expense of Homestrait over C&D in May and needs to bounce back.

ATR VERDICT: C&D winner Golden Prosperity has dropped to an appealing mark and needs to be considered, but it may pay to side with ZUFFOLO. Michael Dods' charge ran too badly to be true when well beaten at Thirsk and if reproducing the level of form he showed when second at Redcar prior, he could be the one to beat. Fear And Fast completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Despite showing plenty of greenness, ROXA LOVE still shaped with lots of promise when third at Lingfield and she would have learned a great deal from the experience. With normal improvement, she will prove a tough nut to crack. Henley On Thames produced an encouraging debut effort when sixth at Sandown recently and will take a step forward from that display. ATR VERDICT: Brocklesby Bill stepped forward from his Newbury debut to gamely get off the mark over 7f at Chepstow. Kathy Turner's three-year-old is going the right way and can go close if coping with the step back up in trip under a penalty. However, HOUSE OF MEDICI posted a highly promising effort when third over an inadequate 7f on his debut at Kempton and the Andrew Balding-trained colt is a logical choice now he has some experience. Star Banner and Fiefdom could also have a say.

If Patrick Owens' charge can back that performance up, he will prove hard to beat. | 9 (3) | | 5-26252 | NOGO'S DREAM 10 CD b g Oasis Dream - Morning Chimes | 6 9 - 4p | Oisin Murphy R Hughes | 78 |

ATR VERDICT: Nogo's Dream was beaten two lengths into second in a class 4 contest at Sandown recently and has to be respected with Oisin Murphy booked. Mesaafi justified strong market support to strike over C&D last time and is noted, but GLAMOROUS BREEZE might be the one. Christopher Mason's mare finished a close third with Nogo's Dream behind in fifth at Goodwood on her return last month and can take a step forward to record her 11th career triumph.

Top Tip: GLAMOROUS BREEZE (2)
Watch out for: NOGO'S DREAM (9)

ATR VERDICT: With improvement plausible over this trip, DASH OF CLASS edges the vote over Joycean Way, who commands respect but is far more exposed than his younger rival. The selection stayed 1m2f without any issues when third at Chepstow last time and, with skilful 3lb claimer Jack Callan booked for the ride, the daughter of Earthlight appears to have been found a winnable race. D Day Major Winter is the pick of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: Guitar Solo has shown ability in her three career starts so far and is of interest stepping up in trip on her handicap bow. Astrological finished a fair third at Lingfield latest and may have more to offer, but it's RUMBUSTIOUS who appeals most. Charlie Johnston's colt finished a long way clear of the third when filling the runner-up spot at Thirsk on his most recent start and remains unexposed over this distance.

ATR VERDICT: As a three-time C&D winner, KING OF WAR has plenty going for him off a highly competitive mark. He's won off 7lb higher in the past and cutting back a furlong appears to be a good move after he failed to see out a mile here 13 days ago. All three of The Bitter Moose's wins have come over 7f and he is suggested as the biggest danger to the selection. State Of Madness is also feared.
