ATR VERDICT: WATEERA looked smart when making all to win on her debut at Wetherby and a 7lb penalty might not be enough to stop Karl Burke's filly. The daughter of Dandy Man is likely to have more improvement left to come and tops the shortlist as a result. Big Hitter can get the better of newcomer Miss Tango for second place.

ATR VERDICT: None of these would need to make giant strides to have a say but it is CHILLI that earns the vote. The daughter of Harry Angel did plenty wrong on her debut at Chepstow but came home strongly once the penny had dropped, and that experience can only stand her in good stead. Greek Symphony is feared, while newcomer Sequel Star warrants a market check.

ATR VERDICT: Anad made the perfect start to her career at Wolverhampton and is respected under a penalty, but that might hinder her as she seeks to repel the likely challenge of BAYSIDE VIEW. Michael Bell's filly pushed a potentially useful rival all the way at Doncaster earlier this month and could be tough to stop given any progress. Approved is also noted.

ATR VERDICT: The booking of leading apprentice Jack Callan negates the 5lb penalty picked by Taritino for his win at Salisbury down to effectively just 2lb and another bold showing looks likely. However, BAILEYS KHELSTAR is more proven over this sort of distance on the Flat and he gets the vote, with the form of his last three starts working out well. The feasibly-treated Russian Rumour is the pick of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: REDBUD SIXTEEN took advantage of a drop in the ratings to score at Salisbury nine days ago and is a logical option turned out under a 5lb penalty. The daughter of Galiway won that race by six and a half lengths and there is every chance she is well ahead of her current mark. Yokohama and Harlington are consistent rivals that can make this a good test, while Tiger isn't fully exposed and could have a say.

Top Tip: REDBUD SIXTEEN (3)

Watch out for: YOKOHAMA (5)
