ATR VERDICT: ATOMIC CITY earned a rating in the high 80s on the Flat and made virtually all to land a maiden over an extended 1m2f here in May. The son of Ghaiyyath has been gelded since finishing down the field at Royal Ascot and is preferred to stablemate Green Soul who showed a similar level of form as a juvenile, but has been absent for over a year. Chairmanforlife looks the pick of those with previous jumping experience having stayed on into second behind Danny Power at Listowel last month, while Step By Step had a number of these rivals behind when third on debut at Ballinrobe.

ATR VERDICT: MARTYMILL showed promise in bumpers including when runner-up at Listowel before scoring in good style at Downpatrick. The selection was subsequently placed on his hurdle debut at Uttoxeter and should benefit from that experience. Square Jasmin rates a threat on his fourth behind the odds-on Arouet over hurdles here in May, but has been absent since soundly beaten in a Wexford bumper later that month. Conor'salwaysright has won a Sligo bumper and is one to consider on his hurdling bow, while Our Sara has indicated ability both in bumpers and over hurdles.

ATR VERDICT: MINELLA EMPEROR won twice in bumpers including on this corresponding card last year and can open his account over hurdles in receipt of weight from all three rivals. The Emmet Mullins-trained gelding progressed well as he was upped in trip last season including when second over this distance at Haydock. His form tailed off at the end of that campaign and hopefully he'll be refreshed after a summer break. Dad Sez showed a liking for a test of stamina when scoring easily in a maiden at Kilbeggan, while Hi Ho Idaho is also proven over the trip having stayed on well behind Millstream Lady at Listowel last month.
