ATR VERDICT: Having displayed signs of inexperience when third on her opening bid at Nottingham, AVEBURY RING could be poised to open her account. Ralph Beckett's filly stayed on nicely that day and is slightly more compelling than Usaylah. The daughter of Zarak lost little in defeat when denied by only half a length on her debut at Kempton and she's unlikely to be far away. Market support for newcomers Antonova and Cloak Of Power would be noteworthy.

Top Tip: AVEBURY RING (2)

ATR VERDICT: Oliaku finished third to a subsequent Listed winner on her opening bid as a juvenile here 516 days ago and it will be interesting to see how she fares in the market on her belated return to action. Regardless, STARSHIP LILY rates as the most solid proposition after finishing second on her most recent outing at Wolverhampton, for all that March Of Time isn't easily dismissed reverting to novice company.

ATR VERDICT: There was plenty to like about QUEEN OF SCOTLAND's latest victory at Kempton and there is every chance she can complete a hat-trick on her handicap bow. The three-year-old has impressed with her finishing effort on both victories to date and a mark of 87 looks workable. Lady Magu is also on an upward trajectory and merits respect given she comfortably completed a double at Wolverhampton, while fellow last-time-out winner Arrivera is noted.

ATR VERDICT: There aren't many more consistent mares in training than Court Drive and although she hasn't got her trusty partner Jack Mitchell in the plate this time, the five-year-old should give another good account of herself. Kinetic Force and Diomed Duke are others to bear in mind, but a tentative vote is for FIORELLA PRINCESS, who hammered Diomed Duke here two starts ago and is taken to reverse the Southwell form with Court Drive now back on the grass.

ATR VERDICT: RAMBUSO CREEK has won two of his last four starts and won't mind this softer ground and step back up to 6f on the evidence of his Nottingham triumph, albeit in classified stakes company, in June. He has returned from a break in good form and his 4lb penalty for winning at Nottingham six days ago is negated by Toby Moore's 7lb allowance in the saddle. The dangers are Wodao and Dashing Donkey.

ATR VERDICT: CALL TIME wasn't fancied in the betting when on a hat-trick at Nottingham last week but finished half-a-length second to Rambuso Creek and won after a similar quick turnaround at Ffos Las last month. That form may have been given a timely boost in the previous race on this card and the five-year-old is fancied to go very close, although Koffee And Kale and Rory's Royale will no doubt keep him honest.

ATR VERDICT: DALAMARA is a progressive three-year-old who commands respect in this handicap. She's not going to be much of a price but is difficult to oppose on the back of her ready C&D triumph at the beginning of the month. Boubyan has a 5lb penalty to contend with following his triumph here last week and Danehill Star, who has won two of his last three starts, is another arriving in good nick.

ATR VERDICT: SHES GOT THE BLUES has certainly had a busy year, but she is thriving on her racing and maintained her excellent level of consistency when successful at Brighton. She doesn't seem quite as at home on the all-weather but such is her form at present, she has to be stuck with. There are no such surface concerns about Bajan Bandit, who was beaten less than a length into third when attempting to complete a C&D double. Starliner beat Second Fiddle here before coming up short at Ayr, and Poppeye is worth a look too.

ATR VERDICT: Northern Viola proved her Beverley triumph was no fluke when finding just one too strong at Nottingham. Her half-brother was happiest on Tapeta so the surface shouldn't bother her, but BLACK FURY might be better treated. The daughter of Arizona belied three-figure odds to occupy the runner-up berth in a Beverley maiden and starts handicap life off a handy mark. Similar could be said for Texting and London Rose, while Notimetotakeoff's nursery bow resulted in a Leicester third last week and the application of a visor doesn't need to prompt too much improvement.

ATR VERDICT: Opal Storm has won at Ayr and Southwell this autumn, with valid excuses for her two defeats in between. All Good has been in fine form on turf since returning from the sidelines, while Ashen, Valor Spirit, Lucius Aurelius and Simba's Pride have also been in good heart on the grass. Herakles is worth a look on his return to the fray, but BRAZEN IDOL came within a whisker of glory over 6f here last week and maybe the drop to the minimum trip can help him end a drought that stretches back to January 2024.

Top Tip: BRAZEN IDOL (9)

Watch out for: OPAL STORM (7)

ATR VERDICT: POCKLEY justified favouritism with an authoritative display in this contest 12 months ago, but then showed precious little until an encouraging fourth over C&D on Friday. That effort suggested that he might be coming to the boil again and he can successfully defend his crown. Liquid Cooled caught the eye when making the frame over 6f here and is worth another try at the minimum distance. Ellie's De Vega struck over track and trip and is a player if judged on that display rather than his subsequent fifth.

Top Tip: POCKLEY (2)

ATR VERDICT: Woolridge made every post a winning one over C&D last week, keeping MACEDONIAN at bay. The runner-up was only beaten a neck, though, and is 5lb better off so can gain his revenge. Speeding Bullet will relish the rise from 5f, whereas Victory Sound drops in distance and his all-weather record is slightly better. Mayo County has finished third twice since returning from a mid-season break and shouldn't be far away, with Lord Abama another to consider.

Top Tip: MACEDONIAN (9)
Watch out for: WOOLRIDGE (6)
